I Vow to Thee My Country

God of Our Fathers

God of our fathers, Whose almighty hand Leads forth in beauty all the starry band
Of shining worlds in splendor thro' the skies, Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past; In this free land by Thee our lot is cast;
Be Thou our ruler, guardian, guide and stay, Thy word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence, Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defence;
Thy true religion in our hearts increase, Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way, Lead us from night to never-ending day;
Fill all our lives with love and grace divine, And glory, laud and praise be ever Thine.

Wherever You Are

Wherever you are my love will keep you safe,
My heart will build a bridge of light across both time and space.
Wherever you are, our hearts still beat as one.
I hold you in my dreams each night until your task is done.
Light up the darkness, my wondrous star.
Our hopes and dreams, my heart and yours, forever shining far
Light up the darkness, my prince of peace.
May the stars shine all around you may your courage never cease.

Wherever I am, I will love you day by day. I will keep you safe, cling on to faith, along the dark dark way.

Wherever I am, I will hold on through the night.
I will pray each day a safe return, will look now to the light.
Light up the darkness, my wondrous star
Our hopes and dreams, my heart and yours, forever shining far.
Light up the darkness, my prince of peace.
May the stars shine all around you may your courage never cease.

May your courage never cease...

Now Thank We All Our God, Hymn #555

Now thank we all our God With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom this world rejoices;
Who, from our mothers’ arms Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts And blessed peace to cheer us;
And keep us in His grace, And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God, Who reigns in highest heaven,
To Father and to Son And Spirit now be given.
The one eternal God, Whom earth and heaven adore,
The God who was, and is, And shall be evermore.

Lieutenant Brad Snyder, U.S. Navy, was born in 1984, the oldest of four children. Brad graduated from Northeast High School in St. Petersburg, FL in 2002 and entered the U.S. Naval Academy as part of the first class to enter the Academy following 9/11. He competed all four years on the Naval Academy's Division I swimming team and was elected captain his senior year. Following graduation in 2006, Brad trained and qualified as an Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) officer, part of a small community trained to dismantle and clear explosives in all environments. He has served in EOD units in Charleston, South Carolina and Virginia Beach, Virginia, and on deployments in Iraq and Afghanistan. Near Kandahar, Afghanistan on September 7, 2011, while working to clear a way for medics to reach victims of an improvised explosive device (IED) explosion, Brad suffered injuries from another IED explosion. Still recovering from injuries that left him completely blind, Brad is currently living independently in Baltimore and working for a technology company in an internship arranged by Care Coalition, designed to assist wounded warriors as they transition from military service to private life. He competed in the Wounded Warrior Games in swimming and track, and is on the National Paralympics Team as a blind swimmer. He will compete in the Paralympic trials next month to earn a spot on the team going to London.

Today’s flowers are given by Bob and Avice Hill in loving memory of Margaret Whiston.

Yellow Ribbon fund:

to honor and empower wounded warriors who have incurred service-connected injuries.

The tragic events of September 11 are often the reason warriors say they felt a sense of duty to volunteer for the military. These individuals chose to defend our country, and that is why we honor them.

With advancements in battlefield medicine and body armor, an unprecedented percentage of service members are surviving severe wounds or injuries. For every U.S. soldier killed in World Wars I and II, there were 1.7 soldiers wounded. In Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom, for every U.S. soldier killed, seven are wounded. Combined, over 47,000 servicemen and women have been injured in the recent military conflicts.

In addition to the physical wounds, it is estimated as many as 400,000 service members live with the invisible wounds of war including combat-related stress, major depression, and post-traumatic stress disorder. Another 320,000 are believed to have experienced a traumatic brain injury while on deployment.

With the mission to honor and empower wounded warriors, Yellow Ribbon Fund encourages warriors as they adjust to their new normal and achieve new triumphs. Offering a variety of programs and services, Yellow Ribbon Fund is equipped to serve warriors with every type of injury – from the physical to the invisible wounds of war.

The Christian Atheist: Believing in God but Living as if He Doesn’t Exist

Does your belief in God impact your life? If the answer is no, you may be a Christian Atheist. A Christian Atheist is someone who believes in God, but lives like He doesn’t exist—for example, you believe in God, but worry all the time, or you believe in God, but trust money more.

We are offering two ways to discuss this book:

Come discuss this intriguing look at what it means to live as Christians with other men and women!
