Help the sick: Three of our long-term mission partners, Samaritan’s Purse, Church World Service (Crop Walk), and World Vision, are heavily involved in health care work in the countries and hospitals that are seeing the worst of the Ebola outbreaks. To donate, please visit: samaritanspurse.org/donate, cws.global.org/donate, or worldvision.org/donate

Donate locally: Alternative House transforms the lives of local at-risk children, youth and families. Their immediate need is for full-size hygiene products. Donations are accepted in the church office or contact sue.hamblen@viennapres.org See thealternativehouse.org for more information about this local mission partner.

Feed those in need: Miriam’s Kitchen is committed to ending chronic homelessness in D.C. Help by serving breakfast the 3rd Tuesday of each month. Contact Michael Hallanan at michael.hallanan@verizon.net. For additional information about Miriam’s Kitchen, please visit miriamskitchen.org.

Children are welcome in service; worship folders for kids are available just outside the sanctuary. Childcare and Sunday school class schedules are on the back page.

Joshua Aaron is an independent singer/songwriter and ordained minister. He and his wife, Jeannie have four children and maintain citizenship with both Israel & the United States. As for Me and My House connects the church and Israel through music, proclaiming a message of hope in Jesus, a love for the Jewish people and a desire for the return of the Messiah.

The Connect Pad provides a way for you to connect with others at VPC, as well as let church leaders know what they can do to support you. Please fill it out and pass it on during the offering. And visit the Connect Table in the lobby after the service!
