Children are welcome in the service; worship folders for kids are available just outside the sanctuary. Childcare and Sunday school class schedules are on the back page.

The context of We Three Kings centers around the Biblical Magi, who visited Jesus during His Nativity. Though the event is recounted in the Gospel of Matthew, there are no further details given with regards to their names, the number of Magi that were present or whether they were even royal. Hence, the names of the Magi—and their status as kings from the Orient are legendary and based on tradition. The notion of three kings stems from the fact that there were three separate gifts that were given.

The Connect Pad provides a way for you to connect with others at VPC, as well as to let church leaders know what they can do to support you. Please fill it out and pass it on during the offertory. And visit the Connect Table in the lobby after the service!

What is "The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving," and what does it have to do with Reformed worship? Although that title, and another term, the "eucharistic prayer," may sound unfamiliar to some of us, the prayer itself is not. It's a prayer all of us have joined in many times—the central prayer in the celebration of Holy Communion. Eucharist is the New Testament Greek word for "thanksgiving." So the "eucharistic prayer" is often called "The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving."
