Thank you for joining us today!

If the Easter story is really true, it changes EVERYTHING. If Christ is alive, he has the capacity to impact our ordinary life in wonderfully redemptive ways. The resurrection of Jesus isn’t the end of the story...God’s story is still unfolding. Our central ambition as believers at Vienna Presbyterian is to connect our story with God’s big story. We encourage you to join us this year as we seek to live out God’s story in our everyday lives.

Children are welcome in the service; worship folders for kids are available just outside the sanctuary.

Why lilies at Easter? The lily symbolizes purity, hope, and life. Often called the 'White-Robed Apostles of Hope,' lilies are said to have been found growing in the Garden of Gethsemane after Christ's agony. The lily has a long history with Christianity. The oldest legend is that when Eve left the Garden of Eden she shed tears of repentance and from those tears sprang up lilies. Mary, the mother of Jesus, is also seen with lilies. In early paintings the Angel Gabriel is pictured extending a branch of lilies to the Virgin Mary.

The Connect Pad provides a way for you to connect with others at VPC, as well as to let church leaders know what they can do to support you. Please fill it out and pass it on during the offertory. And visit the Connect Table in the lobby after the service!

Leader: Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here: He has been raised!
People: Remember what He said to you, while He was still in Galilee: “the Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men,, must be crucified, and must rise on the third day.” Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again.

This week, hold in prayer... The Slater family as they mourn the loss of Jane Slater, who passed away on March 26, 2015.

PRAYER: Lord Jesus, I invite you into my life. I confess that you died for my sins and extend to me the unconditional gift of forgiveness. I endeavor from this moment forward to live for you and follow you as Lord of my life. I trust that you will transform me into the person you want me to become. Fill me with your Spirit’s presence so that I may share this faith and love with other people. I offer this prayer with gratitude in Jesus’ name. Amen.
