Elijah is a Hebrew name ֶלְיָהו (Eliyyahu) meaning “my God is YAHWEH.” Elijah was a Hebrew prophet of the 9th century BC, during the reign of King Ahab and his queen, Jezebel. The two Books of Kings in the Old Testament tell his story, which culminates with Elijah being carried to heaven in a chariot of fire.

A Mother’s Prayer was written by the Getty’s after the birth of their daughter Eliza. Krysten says “when Eliza came I was anticipating a fresh flow of profound poetic thought but instead I was swept up in the constant flow of changes and feedings and ‘Old MacDonald had a farm’! I actually wondered if I’d ever be able to write again. As I continued to learn the wonderful balancing act of mothering, Keith and I began to write a song for Eliza choosing this theme of praying for her and the end result was ‘A Mother's prayer’.”
