How do I make content unavailable to students?

If you are building your course while you have students in the course, there may be some content you do not want them to view. This tutorial shows you how to publish and draft content.

1) Under Content, find the module or item you would like to set as a draft.

2) Once open, click Published. A drop down menu will appear to select either Published or Draft.

3) Select Draft.