The Harold Burson Summer Internship (HBSI) Program is a ten week, paid internship at one of our U.S. Burson-Marsteller offices. During the internship, students work closely with industry leaders to gain experience in public relations encompassing everything from media relations and research to digital communications and grassroots campaigns.

Why Burson-Marsteller?
- A dynamic and fast-paced global agency.
- Invaluable team experience, with the opportunity to shine as an individual.
- The opportunity to work on a final project and present to senior management and clients.
- Training and career-development that can often lead to employment opportunities.
