INTERNATIONAL PATHWAYS WORKSHOPS

The Ingram Commons

Immersion Pathways Workshops

Preparing to Make the Most of Your Study Abroad Experience
1/23, 7-8 p.m.
The Commons Center MPR
Join experts from all four undergraduate schools and the Global Education Office as they discuss the essentials of what you need to know to plan an exceptional study abroad experience.

Study Abroad in STEM
1/30, 8-9 p.m.
The Commons Center MPR
Come hear discipline-specific program information from professors and advisors. Current students will discuss their experiences in STEM courses abroad.

Study Abroad for Language Proficiency
2/6, 8-9 p.m.
The Commons Center MPR
A panel of faculty directors and student participants discuss how to ensure you advance your linguistic proficiency in a study abroad setting. This panel will include information about language-specific programs and funding opportunities.

Cafecito: How to Talk to Your Parents About Studying Abroad
2/9, 5-6 p.m.
Sutherland House Faculty Apartment

Make it Immersive: Sports, Internships, and Service Abroad
2/13, 8-9 p.m.
The Commons Center MPR
Explore how to get involved locally and make your study abroad experience truly immersive.

Dean’s Dinner: I Studied Abroad
2/15, 6:00 p.m.
Dean’s Residence

Coming Back: Making the Transition to Campus
3/20, 8-9 p.m.
The Commons Center MPR
Learn how to document your experience abroad and ensure a smooth re-entry back to Vanderbilt’s academic environment and social scene.

Rolling Seminar: Making Connections with Local International Communities
3/24, 11:00 a.m.- 3:00 p.m.
Lunch is provided

Coordinated through The Ingram Commons Immersion Pathways Workshop program by:
Chalane Helmuth, Ph.D.
Senior Lecturer, Department of Spanish and Portuguese, Affiliated Faculty, Center for Latin American Studies, Faculty Head of Sutherland House