Call to Artists

Indigenous Public Art Commission

for the Walker Art Center/
Minneapolis Sculpture Garden

Taku wanji

We want to tell you something.

Are you a knowledge keeper, a contemporary artist, or a traditional artist interested in making public art? The Walker Art Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota, along with a selection committee of Indigenous arts professionals, invites artists' proposals for a new public artwork for placement in the Minneapolis Sculpture Garden or a location on the Walker campus. Individual or collaborative original work may be sculptural; incorporate other disciplines, such as audiovisual or installation art; or include traditionally sourced materials. Aha's ake!
