CBU WITH A STEADY, CONSISTENT START TO 2023-24

Flying relatively under the radar to kick off the 2023-24 season, California Baptist won three straight games to enter the opening week of conference play atop the WAC with a 5-1 record in non-league competition. The Lancers logged the best non-conference mark on the eve of WAC games on the strength of the best scoring defense in the conference (61.3 points allowed per game). Newcomer Dominique Daniels Jr. was the conference leader in made 3-pointers (17) and ranked second in scoring (17.5 points per game) and 3-point field goal percentage (.415) among all WAC players as of Nov. 28.

SFA PUTTING IT TOGETHER AGAINST A CHALLENGING SCHEDULE

Stephen F. Austin entered the first week of conference play 4-2 thus far this season following an early-season test at the Cayman Island Classic last week. The Lumberjacks played three games against teams in the top 125 of the latest KenPom.com rankings and emerged with a 2-1 record, which included a 92-68 rout of #87 Drake. Preseason all-conference selection Sadaidriene Hall has led a balanced SFA scoring attack with 12.5 points per game through six games, one of eight different Lumberjacks averaging 5.0 or more points per game in nonconference play.

CONFERENCE PLAY BEGINS A BIT EARLY THIS YEAR

With the move to a 20-game conference schedule ahead of the 2023-24 season, a full week of WAC matchups were slotted into the final week of November/first week of December instead of the traditional start of league action after the completion of the non-conference slate. A total of 10 WAC showdowns are on tap for Nov. 29 and Dec. 2 before the stretch run of the non-conference schedule closes out the calendar for 2023. Key matchups in the initial week of conference games include Abilene Christian at UT Arlington and Tarleton State at Stephen F. Austin on Nov. 29, followed by Stephen F. Austin traveling to Abilene Christian and UT Arlington on the road at Grand Canyon on Dec. 2.
