DEACS VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

- Wake Forest is now 24-137-1 all-time against ranked opponents after beating No. 14 (CFP) NC State.
- Wake Forest has beaten a ranked opponent in each of the last three years. The Deacons beat No. 23 Temple in the 2016 Military Bowl and No. 19 NC State in 2017 at BB&T Field.
- The win over NC State marked the Deacons' first over a ranked team on the road since beating No. 24 Florida State 12-3 in Tallahassee in 2008. The 14th-ranked Wolfpack were the highest-ranked team Wake Forest had beaten on the road since posting a 24-19 win over No. 14 North Carolina at Kenan Stadium in 1979.
- This is the second time in school history that Wake Forest has posted a win over an AP ranked team in three consecutive years. The Demon Deacons also accomplished that feat from 2006-08.

FOURTH QUARTER COMEBACK

- Wake Forest trailed NC State 23-13 one play into the fourth quarter after the Wolfpack scored on a 35-yard pass.
- The Demon Deacons cut the lead to 23-20 with 6:07 remaining on a 19-yard pass from Jamie Newman to Greg Dortch. The Deacons won the game with 30 seconds left when Newman hit TE Jack Freudenthal with a 32-yard touchdown pass.
- Wake Forest's 27-23 victory marks the first time since 2007 that the Demon Deacons have overcome a double-digit fourth quarter comeback to win. Against Maryland at BB&T Field in 2007, the Deacons trailed 24-10 entering the fourth quarter before tying the game at 24 and winning 31-24 in overtime.

WAKE FOREST FOOTBALL

NEWMAN SHINES IN FIRST START

- With QB Sam Hartman out for the season, redshirt sophomore Jamie Newman made his first career start vs. NC State on Thursday, Nov. 8
- Newman was in on all 71 of Wake Forest's total offensive plays against NC State. Newman's most extensive action previously had been 27 snaps against Notre Dame and 17 snaps against Florida State. He had played a total of 44 snaps this season and had 66 career snaps to his credit entering the NC State game.
- Newman completed 22-of-33 passes for 297 yards and three touchdowns. It was the second-most passing yards ever by a Wake Forest quarterback in his first career start. Sam Hartman threw for 378 yards in his first career start at Tulane in the 2018 season opener.
- Newman became just the third QB in school history to throw three touchdown passes in his first career start. Keith West tossed three against Vanderbilt in 1990 in a 56-28 win and Norm Snead had three scoring passes against Maryland in 1958 in his first career start.
- Newman posted a 172.27 passing efficiency rating vs. the Wolfpack. Only Snead's 203.33 vs. Maryland in 1958 was greater than Newman's rating.
- At 6-4, 235, Newman is tied with three others as the tallest starting QB in Wake Forest history. Norm Snead (1958-60), C.J. Leak (3 starts in 2000) and Ken Daly (4 starts in 1978) were each 6-4.

QB STARTS VS. RANKED ROAD OPPONENT

- Jamie Newman wasn't the first Wake Forest QB to make his first career start on the road against a ranked opponent.
- Tanner Price in 2010 made his first start at No. 19 Stanford. Charlie Carpenter made his first career start in 1955 at No. 20 Duke.
- Newman was the first Deacon to start his first career game on the road at a ranked opponent and produce a victory.

DEFENSIVE STANDOUTS

- Wake Forest held NC State to just 47 yards rushing on Nov. 8. It was the fewest yards allowed by the Deacon defense since holding Utah State to 42 yards in September of 2017. The Deacs allowed a season-low 1.7 yards per carry to the Wolfpack.
- It was the fewest rush yards allowed to an ACC opponent since holding Duke to 37 on Sept. 10, 2016.
- CB Amari Henderson recorded a career-high 14 tackles including nine solos and five assists. Henderson also broke up two passes.
- S Cameron Glenn had seven solo and four assists for 11 total tackles. Glenn's four tackles for loss were not only a career-high but ties the most by any ACC defender this season. Glenn recorded his first career sack against NC State, as well as breaking up two passes en route to being named the ACC Defensive Back of the Week.
- Wake Forest had a season-high 11 tackles for loss.

RECEPTION...AND AN INTERCEPTION?

- WR Scotty Washington had two receptions for 14 yards in Wake Forest's 27-23 win over No. 14 NC State on Nov. 8.
- Washington was inserted on defense on NC State's final offensive play of the game as the Wolfpack snapped the ball from their own 49 with four seconds left to play in the game. He intercepted Ryan Finley's pass at the goal line and returned it eight yards.
- Washington became the first Wake Forest player with a reception and an interception in the same game since Butch Henry against North Carolina in 1967. In that game, Henry had two receptions for 19 yards and one interception with a four-yard return.
- It wasn't the first time Washington was on the field for a game-sealing play. Against Appalachian State in 2017, Washington blocked a 49-yard field goal with five seconds remaining to guarantee the Deacons a 20-19 win in Boone.

CAREER HIGHS VS. THE WOLFPACK

- QB Jamie Newman set career-highs with 13 carries, 33 pass attempts, 22 pass completions, 297 passing yards and three touchdown passes.
- WR Sage Suratt caught a career-long 43-yard pass from Newman.
- CB Amari Henderson had a career-high with 14 tackles.
- S Chuck Wade tied his career-high with eight tackles.
- DE Mike Allen had a career-best two tackles.
- Additionally, WR Alex Bachman's 38-yard touchdown catch from Jamie Newman was Bachman's longest reception of the season.

DEMON DEACON MILESTONES

- WR Scotty Washington enters the Pittsburgh game with 992 career receiving yards and needs just eight for 1,000 in his career.
- WR Alex Bachman enters the Pittsburgh game with 915 career receiving yards and is closing in on 1,000 for his career.
- RB Cade Carney has 1,490 career rushing yards and is closing in on 1,500 for his career.
- WR Greg Dortch has 75 receptions and 921 receiving yards this season. Dortch's 75 receptions rank as the fifth-most in a season by a Wake Forest receiver. Should he get to 1,000 yards receiving on the season, Dortch would be just the fifth Demon Deacon to do so, joining Chris Givens (2011), Ricky Proehl (1989), Kenneth Moore (2007) and Wayne Baumgardner (1979).
- Cameron Glenn has 247 career tackles and needs three to get to 250.
- P Dom Maggio finished the NC State game with exactly 200 career punts.
- CB Essang Bassey has moved into a tie for ninth in school history with 35 career passes defended, including 31 pass breakups and four interceptions.

WAKE FOREST FOOTBALL

Dave Clawson

Head Coach

5th Year

Williams ■ 1989

Four may not be Dave Clawson's lucky number but perhaps it should be. Having recently completed his fourth season at Wake Forest, his fourth head coaching stop, Clawson seems to always strike gold in Year Four.

Clawson, who started his head coaching career at Fordham in 1999, took the Rams to a 10-3 record in his fourth year in The Bronx and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. Clawson started at Richmond in 2004 and had the Spiders at 11-3 and in the FCS semifinals in Year Four. At Bowling Green, Clawson's fourth season produced an 8-5 record and a berth in the Military Bowl. And Year Four at Wake Forest was no less magical with the Deacons sitting at 8-5 following a thrilling 55-52 win over Texas A&M in the Belk Bowl in December.

For four seasons with the Demon Deacons, Clawson has preached strong defense and patience on offense. Year Four brought an avalanche of offense as his group of attackers, thrown into the fire in 2014 as youngsters, matured into a tenacious group that set school records for scoring and total offense.

The Demon Deacons set 105 records in 2017, tied another 15 marks, and became one of the nation's most efficient and productive offenses. Wake Forest set major records for points scored in a season, obliterating the record by 97 points. The offense set new marks for total offense yards in a game and in a season, yards per carry, most touchdowns scored and most touchdown passes in a season. The defense set a record with 106 tackles for loss.

But two records stand out: Wake Forest had 11 players selected for 12 All-ACC positions, and as a team, the Deacons beat six bowl teams in 2017.

The 2016 season marked year three in a career that has steadily shown vast improvement in year three. During his time at Fordham, Richmond and Bowling Green, Clawson's year-three teams averaged six wins. He exceeded that mark with seven victories in 2016.

With the 2016 addition of McCreary Field House, Wake Forest's state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, and the construction of the Sutton Sports Performance Center, which will mark yet another technologically advanced facility, Clawson and the Deacons are clearly on a roll.

On December 10, 2013, Clawson became the 32nd head football coach in Wake Forest University history. The head coach at Bowling Green State University from 2009 through 2013, Clawson led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois.

Clawson joined the Demon Deacons after five seasons as the head coach at BGSU in Bowling Green, Ohio. He built the Falcons to be explosive both offensively and defensively. The 2013 Bowling Green team ranked 29th in the nation in total offense and tenth in total defense. In 2012, BGSU was ranked sixth in the nation in total defense and 10th nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.8 points per game. The Falcons were one of only two non-power conference teams to rank in the top 30 statistically in both total offense and total defense in 2013.

Bowling Green's 2013 team went 10-3 overall under Clawson and won the MAC East title with a 7-1 record. The Falcons received a bid to the Little Caesar's Bowl in Detroit. It marked the third bowl appearance in five seasons for Clawson's team.

In his 18 years as a head coach, Clawson delivered a conference championship at each of his first three stops. Prior to the 2013 Mid-American Conference title at Bowling Green, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

He has also earned numerous Coach of the Year awards.

He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in just his second year in the league. The 2007 CAA Coach of the Year award marked his fourth conference Coach of the Year honor in his first nine years as a head coach.

In 2002, Clawson was the Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

A 1989 graduate of Williams College in Massachusetts, Clawson earned a degree in political economy. A native of Youngstown, N.Y., Clawson was a defensive back for Williams and went on to serve as a graduate assistant coach at Albany in 1989 and 1990. He moved to Buffalo for the 1991 and 1992 seasons, tutoring the secondary his first year and the quarterbacks and running backs his second.

In 1993, Clawson was named the running backs coach at Lehigh and helped the Mountain Hawks to a 7-4 record and the Patriot League championship. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1994 and spent two years in that role, adding another Patriot League title in 1995. Lehigh won a pair of Patriot League titles in his three years and his offense led the league in scoring, total offense and pass offense in each of his final two seasons.

Villanova hired Clawson as offensive coordinator in 1996 and his offense helped the Wildcats to NCAA FCS appearances in 1996 and 1997. During his tenure at Villanova, Clawson's offense established 70 program records, held the No. 1 ranking in the nation for six weeks in 1997 and won the 1997 Atlantic 10 championship. He tutored Brian Westbrook who became the first player in college football history to gain 1,000 yards both rushing and receiving.

Following the 1998 season, Clawson became the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was named head coach at Fordham. Inheriting a team that had won just 22 games in the previous 10 years, Clawson turned the Rams into the Patriot League champions in his fourth season. He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in both 2001 and 2002. Clawson helped the Rams 2002 FCS Playoffs where they defeated fourth seed Northeastern in the opening round before falling to Villanova.

Clawson was named the head coach at Richmond prior to the 2004 season. He guided the Spiders to the biggest two-year turnaround in school history, improving from 3-8 in 2004 to 9-4 in 2005. In 2007, his final year with the Spiders, Clawson guided Richmond to an 11-3 record, the Colonial South title and the FCS national semifinals.

He left Richmond in 2008 to replace David Cutcliffe as the offensive coordinator under Phillip Fulmer at Tennessee. Following that season, Clawson was named the head coach at Bowling Green in time for the 2009 season.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

Minutes later, Dortch torched the special teams of Towson with a 70-yard punt return touchdown. The touchdown put Dortch over 200 all-purpose yards for the fourth-straight game, the first Wake Forest player ever to hit that mark.

Dortch returned a 60-yard punt for a touchdown in the waning minutes of the first half to continue his historic pace. Towson scored a touchdown shortly before halftime and missed the two-point conversion as Wake Forest took a 38-20 lead into the locker room.

Sciba added a 27-yard field goal in the third quarter followed by a 1-yard touchdown run by Carney in the fourth quarter as Wake Forest led 48-20. Sciba tacked on another 27-yarder in the fourth quarter.

GAME 5 WAKE FOREST 56, RICE 24 SEPTEMBER 29, 2018 BB&T FIELD (24,519)

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — The Wake Forest offense scored early and scored often Saturday (Sept. 29), as the Demon Deacons cruised past Rice, 56-24, on Family Weekend.

The Demon Deacon (3-2, 0-1 ACC) offense exploded in the opening 30 minutes of play, taking a 42-3 lead into the half-time break. The 42 points are a single-half record under head coach Dave Clawson while the 21 points in the first quarter are tied for the second-most in a single quarter in the Clawson era.

Greg Dortch tied his own school record for touchdown receptions in a game (4) and finished the day with 163 receiving yards. Cade Carney had his first multi-touchdown day since September 10, 2016, while Matt Colburn II became the 12th player in program history to surpass 2,000 career rushing yards to pace the offense. Quarterback Sam Hartman finished the day 15-of-17 for 241 yards and four touchdown passes.

Wake Forest recorded a pair of defensive touchdowns against Rice (1-4, 0-1 C-USA), returning two interceptions to the end zone.

The Deacs stormed out to a 28-0 lead as Dortch and Carney traded touchdowns through the first 17 minutes. After punting on their first drive, the Deacs scored touchdowns on their next six, sparked by a 54-yard pass from Hartman to Dortch less than five minutes into the game to make it 7-0 in favor of the Deacs. Carney rushed on six of Wake Forest's seven plays on the next drive for 31 yards, capped off by a 1-yard touchdown run as the lead grew to 14-0.

Hartman was the featured Deacon on the next drive, completing all four pass attempts on a seven-play, 61-yard drive, connecting with Dortch for a 10-yard touchdown to push the lead to 21-0. Masterson had the first interception of his career and returned it 43 yards, setting up a short field and an eventual 1-yard TD plunge from Carney.

Following a Rice field goal, Hartman and Dortch again connected, this time for a 38-yard touchdown to push the lead to 35-3 with 8:10 left in the second quarter. Zeek Rodney forced a fumble and Essang Bassey returned it 51 yards for a touchdown, extending the advantage to 42-3 at the break.

Hartman found Dortch for a gain of 25 before hitting Jack Freudenthal down the sideline for 42 yards on the very next play. Two plays later, Hartman connected with Dortch for the fourth time of the afternoon to extend the lead to 49-10.

The defense stepped up for its second score of the afternoon with Chuck Wade, Jr. intercepting Stankavage and returning it 60 yards to the end zone midway through the third quarter before Rice added a pair of touchdowns to close out play.

RALEIGH, N.C. — Wake Forest completed a fourth quarter comeback with a touchdown pass from Jamie Newman to Jack Freudenthal in the final minute to upset No. 14 NC State 27-23 Thursday night at Carter-Finley Stadium. The Demon Deacons (5-5, 2-4 ACC) erased a 10-point deficit in the final period as they posted their first ranked road win since 2008.

The comeback marked the first time since 2007 that Wake Forest rallied from down double digits in the fourth quarter to win. The victory was also the Deacs' first win in Raleigh since 2006 and their first over a ranked foe on the road since a 12-3 victory at No. 24 Florida State in 2008.

Newman, making his first career start, went 22-of-33 for 297 yards and three touchdowns, including two in the fourth quarter comeback. Sage Surratt made eight catches for 109 yards and Greg Dortch had six catches for 75 yards to lead the wide receiver corps. Cade Carney led the rushing attack with 68 yards on 12 carries.

The Wake Forest defense was led by Amari Henderson, who recorded a career-high 14 tackles to go with two pass breakups. Cameron Glenn had 11 tackles, including a career-high four tackles for loss and his first career sack.

The victory gives Wake Forest a ranked win for the third consecutive season, tying the longest such streak in school history. The Demon Deacons also defeated ranked teams three straight years from 2006-08.
