QUICK TURNAROUND

- Wake Forest will be playing its third game in a 13-day span. It started on Oct. 27 with a win at Louisville and continued with the Nov. 3 home game with Syracuse.
- Wake Forest is the only ACC team playing two conference opponents on five days of prep in 2018. The last ACC teams to play two games with five days of prep in the same season were Clemson and Virginia Tech in 2006.
- For comparison's sake, Alabama's win over LSU on Nov. 3 was its only scheduled game between an Oct. 20 win over Tennessee and a Nov. 10 home game with Mississippi State.

HARTMAN DONE FOR THE SEASON

- Wake Forest freshman QB Sam Hartman suffered a leg injury against Syracuse on Nov. 3 and will miss the remainder of the season.
- Hartman had a solid freshman campaign, starting nine games and leading the Deacons to four wins, one more than any previous true freshman QB in school history.
- Hartman set school freshman records with 16 touchdown passes and 2,259 total offense yards. Hartman completed 161 of 291 passes for 1,984 yards during the season.
- Through games of Nov. 3, among all FBS freshman quarterbacks, Hartman ranks third nationally in passing yards with 1,984, third with 16 touchdown passes, fourth in total offense with 251.0 yards per game, fourth in completions per game at 17.9, third with 1,984 passing yards and fourth in points responsible for with 108.

WAKE FOREST FOOTBALL

QB OPTIONS

- With Sam Hartman sidelined for the remainder of the season, Wake Forest has four options at quarterback.
- Redshirt junior Kendall Hinton is the most experienced QB on the roster, having started four games in his career including at least one in each of the past three seasons. He has missed multiple games in 2018 due to injury.
- Redshirt sophomore Jamie Newman has completed 7-of-15 passes for 75 yards in two games this season. He missed the first three games of the season due to an injury.
- Redshirt freshman Matthew Considine saw his first career action against Clemson on Oct. 6. At 6-6, he is the tallest Deacon QB in school history. The tallest quarterbacks in Wake Forest history include a trio of players at 6-4: Norm Snead (1958-60), Ken Daly (1977-78) and C.J. Leak (1999-2000).
- Redshirt freshman Tayvon Bowers saw his first career action this year against Towson but did not attempt a pass.

SEASON OF INJURY

- Wake Forest suffered six season-ending injuries prior to the start of the 2018 season and six additional injuries since the 2018 campaign started.
- LB Chase Monroe and OL Spencer Clapp suffered torn ACLs during practice leading up to the 2017 Belk Bowl.
- LB Jeff Burley and RB Tyler Bell suffered torn ACLs in the spring. CB Arkeem Byrd suffered a dislocated knee which included a torn ACL during spring practice.
- DT Elontae Bateman has been medically disqualified, thus ending his collegiate playing career.
- Since the start of the season, LT Justin Herron and S Coby Davis tore their ACLs in the season-opener at Tulane on Aug. 30. In addition, the Deacons have lost DB Malik Grate, DT LaRonde' Liverpool, LB Nate Mays and QB Sam Hartman.

- Over the last two years, Wake Forest leads the ACC with six 50-point scoring games.

DORTCH THE TORTCH

- Through the first nine games of the season, Greg Dortch continues to lead the ACC in all-purpose yards with an average of 157.7 yards per game. He ranks fifth nationally in all-purpose yards.
- Dortch recorded his fourth game of 190 or more all-purpose yards this season with 192 yards vs. Louisville on Oct. 27. He raised his season total for all-purpose yards to 1,419, which ranks as the 10th-most in a season by a Demon Deacon. His 2,709 career all-purpose yards rank 26th in school history.
- He is first in the ACC in receptions per game (7.7) and second in both receiving yards per game (94.0) and punt return average (12.7). Nationally, Dortch ranks fifth, 15th and ninth, respectively.
- Dortch is the only ACC player to have scored four touchdowns in a game this year having achieved that against Rice on Sept. 29. His 310 all-purpose yards against Towson on Sept. 8 are the most by an individual in the ACC in 2018.
- Dortch is the first player in school history with 800 or more receiving yards, 250 or more punt return yards and 200 or more kickoff return yards.

NON-OFFENSIVE SCORES

- Wake Forest recorded its sixth non-offensive touchdown of the season against Louisville on Oct. 27.
- Carlos "Boogie" Basham, Jr. returned a fumble 23 yards for a Deacon touchdown vs. Louisville that put Wake Forest ahead 35-14. It marked the sixth non-offensive touchdown of the season. Greg Dortch had two punt returns for touchdowns vs. Towson, Malik Grate recovered a blocked punt for a score vs. Boston College, Essang Bassey returned a fumble 51 yards vs. Rice while Chuck Wade added a 60-yard interception return vs. the Owls.
- Wake Forest leads the ACC and is seventh in the nation with three defensive touchdowns, counting only the scores by Bassey, Basham and Wade.
- The school record for non-offensive touchdowns in a season is 10 set in 2007, when the Deacons returned six interceptions, two fumbles, a punt return and a kickoff return for touchdowns.

DEACON DEFENSE X2

- Wake Forest scored two defensive touchdowns in the same game for the first time since 2008.
- Against Rice on Sept. 29, Essang Bassey returned a fumble 51 yards for a score in the second quarter. In the third quarter, Chuck Wade, Jr. returned an interception 60 yards for a score.
- Against Boston College in 2008, Kyle Wilber had a 2-yard fumble return and Kevin Patterson had a 15-yard fumble return.
- Bassey's fumble return marked his second career defensive touchdown after scoring at Boston College on an interception return in 2017.

DORTCH TOPS 100 CAREER RECEPTIONS

- Redshirt sophomore WR Greg Dortch became the fastest Demon Deacon to record 100 career catches.
- Against Clemson, Dortch had three catches for 37 yards, enough to push him over the century mark in just his 14th career game. He now has 122 career catches for 1,568 yards and 15 touchdowns in 17 career contests.
- John Henry Mills (1989-92) had been the previous record-holder, hitting the 100-catch mark in his 22nd career game.
- Earlier this year against Boston College, Dortch became the quickest Deacon to ever reach 1,000 career receiving yards, surpassing the mark in his 11th game. The previous mark had been 19 games.

FAST-PACED ATTACK

- Twice this season, Wake Forest has run more than 100 plays from scrimmage. The Deacons ran 104 plays against Florida State after having run a school record 105 plays against Boston College on Sept. 13.
- It marked just the fourth time in school history that Wake Forest has run over 100 plays. The Deacons ran 103 plays against Western Carolina in 1982 and 101 plays vs. Tulsa in 1971.
- The ACC record for total offense plays in a game is 106 by Syracuse in 2016.

HOT HAND HARTMAN

- Freshman QB Sam Hartman has two of the top 10 total offense play games in school history. Hartman debuted with 442 yards of total offense on 64 plays on Aug. 30 against Tulane. He added 64 total offense plays against Boston College on Sept. 13. The 64 total offense plays in a game are tied for the ninth-most in a single game.
- In addition, Hartman has become the first Wake Forest freshman with three games of 300 or more total offense yards. Along with his 442 yards vs. Tulane, Hartman had 306 yards vs. Towson and 326 yards vs. Syracuse.
- His 88.2 completion percentage against Rice on Sept. 29 also stands atop the ACC this season.

SURRATT SCORES

- Redshirt freshman WR Sage Surraatt snagged his second touchdown catch of the year on a nine-yard pass from Sam Hartman at Florida State.
- It was Surraatt's first TD catch since catching a five-yard scoring pass from Hartman vs. Boston College (9/13).
- Surraatt on the year is second on the club with 25 receptions for 369 yards.

DEACS EARN ACC. NATIONAL RECOGNITION

- Greg Dortch and Sam Hartman each earned a pair of accolades on Oct. 1 following the Deacs' game against Rice.
- Dortch was named the ACC Receiver of the Week as well as being named to the Paul Hornung Award Watch list. Hartman was the ACC's Rookie of the Week as well as being a CFPA Honorable Mention for National Player of the Week.

- Following Wake Forest's victory over Louisville on Oct. 27, Matt Colburn II (Co-Running Back), Cameron Glenn (Defensive Back) and Carlos Basham, Jr. (Defensive Line) were all named ACC Players of the Week.

WADE ACHIEVES RARE DOUBLE

- Wake Forest senior safety Chuck Wade, Jr. had an interception and 60-yard return for a touchdown against Rice on Sept. 29. It was Wade's first career interception after spending his first three seasons as a wide receiver.
- Wade joined an elite list of Demon Deacons who have caught a touchdown pass during their career and returned an interception for a touchdown.
- Wade caught three touchdown passes as a WR from 2015-17. He is just the third Demon Deacon with a touchdown reception and an interception return for a touchdown in a career in 59 years. Bobby Robinson (1958-60) completed the rare double in 1959 while Jack Ladner (1954-56) did it in 1955.
- Wade is one of two active FBS players with a TD catch and a pick-six (Mack Wilson, Alabama).

BB&T FIELD 50TH ANNIVERSARY

- Wake Forest celebrated the 50th Anniversary of BB&T Field throughout the game on Nov. 3. All season ticket holders who have held tickets for all 50 seasons at BB&T Field were recognized during the game.
- Opened in 1968 as Groves Stadium, the Demon Deacons have played 287 games and compiled a record of 129-159-4. The first game was against NC State on Sept. 14, 1968. Wake Forest's first win at the stadium came on Oct. 26, 1968 with a 48-31 win over North Carolina.
- BB&T Field has hosted two ACC Championship teams in the 1970 squad and the 2006 team.
- Wake Forest has gone undefeated at BB&T Field on two occasions, posting a 5-0 mark in 1979 and a 4-0 record in 1970. Three times Wake Forest has won five home games in a season: 1979, 2007 and 2008.
- Head coach Dave Clawson, with 14 wins in his first four seasons, needs one more victory in 2018 to become the second-winningest coach at BB&T Field.

ON THIS DATE IN DEACON FOOTBALL HISTORY • NOVEMBER 8 • RECORD: 5-8

1997: Wake Forest rolled past Rutgers 28-14 in Piscataway, NJ. The defense was stellar for the Deacons, as Kelvin Shackelford had three tackles for loss, while Kelvin Moses and David Zadel had two apiece. Herman Lewis finished with 129 rushing yards.

1980: The Demon Deacons rebounded from a heartbreaking defeat the week prior to win at Duke. The game went back and forth for the first three quarters, but Wake Forest took control for good in the fourth as the Deacs scored twice in a minute. Wake Forest won 27-24 and Jay Venuto finished with 291 yards in the air.

1969: The Wake Forest Demon Deacons beat the Virginia Cavaliers on their own field in remarkable fashion. Virginia jumped out to an early lead by scoring two touchdowns before Wake Forest's first offensive drive. Wake stormed back, however, and eventually the score was knotted up at 21. With just over a minute left to play, Virginia's center overshot his snap over the quarterback's head and into the end zone for a safety. The miscue resulted in a 23-21 Deacon victory.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- Wake Forest outlasted No. 19 NC State 30-24 in an instant classic on Nov. 18 at BB&T Field.

With the Demon Deacons (7-4, 4-3 ACC) holding on to a six-point lead with under two minutes to go, NC State (7-4, 5-2 ACC) had a sure touchdown before fumbling into the end zone with Wake Forest recovering. On the final play of the game, the Deacon defense did it again with an interception to seal the victory.

Quarterback John Wolford passed for three touchdowns and went 19-for-28 and 247 yards passing. Wolford also rushed for 31 yards, putting him over 1,000 yards rushing in his career, making him just the second quarterback in school history to cross that mark.

Wide receiver Tabari Hines had a career night with three touchdowns and 139 yards receiving. Matt Colburn added 38 yards rushing with a touchdown.

Cameron Glenn led the defense with 11 total tackles including seven solo stops. Demetrius Kemp forced two fumbles while Essang Bassey had the game-clinching interception.

WAKE FOREST FOOTBALL

Dave CLAWSON

Head Coach

5th Year

Williams ■ 1989

Four may not be Dave Clawson's lucky number but perhaps it should be. Having recently completed his fourth season at Wake Forest, his fourth head coaching stop, Clawson seems to always strike gold in Year Four.

Clawson, who started his head coaching career at Fordham in 1999, took the Rams to a 10-3 record in his fourth year in The Bronx and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. Clawson started at Richmond in 2004 and had the Spiders at 11-3 and in the FCS semifinals in Year Four. At Bowling Green, Clawson's fourth season produced an 8-5 record and a berth in the Military Bowl. And Year Four at Wake Forest was no less magical with the Deacons sitting at 8-5 following a thrilling 55-52 win over Texas A&M in the Belk Bowl in December.

For four seasons with the Demon Deacons, Clawson has preached strong defense and patience on offense. Year Four brought an avalanche of offense as his group of attackers, thrown into the fire in 2014 as youngsters, matured into a tenacious group that set school records for scoring and total offense.

The Demon Deacons set 105 records in 2017, tied another 15 marks, and became one of the nation's most efficient and productive offenses. Wake Forest set major records for points scored in a season, obliterating the record by 97 points. The offense set new marks for total offense yards in a game and in a season, yards per carry, most touchdowns scored and most touchdown passes in a season. The defense set a record with 106 tackles for loss.

But two records stand out: Wake Forest had 11 players selected for 12 All-ACC positions, and as a team, the Deacons beat six bowl teams in 2017.

The 2016 season marked year three in a career that has steadily shown vast improvement in year three. During his time at Fordham, Richmond and Bowling Green, Clawson's year-three teams averaged six wins. He exceeded that mark with seven victories in 2016.

With the 2016 addition of McCreary Field House, Wake Forest's state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, and the construction of the Sutton Sports Performance Center, which will mark yet another technologically advanced facility, Clawson and the Deacons are clearly on a roll.

On December 10, 2013, Clawson became the 32nd head football coach in Wake Forest University history. The head coach at Bowling Green State University from 2009 through 2013, Clawson led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois.

Clawson joined the Demon Deacons after five seasons as the head coach at BGSU in Bowling Green, Ohio. He built the Falcons to be explosive both offensively and defensively. The 2013 Bowling Green team ranked 29th in the nation in total offense and tenth in total defense. In 2012, BGSU was ranked sixth in the nation in total defense and 10th nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.8 points per game. The Falcons were one of only two non-power conference teams to rank in the top 30 statistically in both total offense and total defense in 2013.

Bowling Green's 2013 team went 10-3 overall under Clawson and won the MAC East title with a 7-1 record. The Falcons received a bid to the Little Caesar's Bowl in Detroit. It marked the third bowl appearance in five seasons for Clawson's team.

In his 18 years as a head coach, Clawson delivered a conference championship at each of his first three stops. Prior to the 2013 Mid-American Conference title at Bowling Green, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

He has also earned numerous Coach of the Year awards.

He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in just his second year in the league. The 2007 CAA Coach of the Year award marked his fourth conference Coach of the Year honor in his first nine years as a head coach.

In 2002, Clawson was the Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

A 1989 graduate of Williams College in Massachusetts, Clawson earned a degree in political economy. A native of Youngstown, N.Y., Clawson was a defensive back for Williams and went on to serve as a graduate assistant coach at Albany in 1989 and 1990. He moved to Buffalo for the 1991 and 1992 seasons, tutoring the secondary his first year and the quarterbacks and running backs his second.

In 1993, Clawson was named the running backs coach at Lehigh and helped the Mountain Hawks to a 7-4 record and the Patriot League championship. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1994 and spent two years in that role, adding another Patriot League title in 1995. Lehigh won a pair of Patriot League titles in his three years and his offense led the league in scoring, total offense and pass offense in each of his final two seasons.

Villanova hired Clawson as offensive coordinator in 1996 and his offense helped the Wildcats to NCAA FCS appearances in 1996 and 1997. During his tenure at Villanova, Clawson's offense established 70 program records, held the No. 1 ranking in the nation for six weeks in 1997 and won the 1997 Atlantic 10 championship. He tutored Brian Westbrook who became the first player in college football history to gain 1,000 yards both rushing and receiving.

Following the 1998 season, Clawson became the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was named head coach at Fordham. Inheriting a team that had won just 22 games in the previous 10 years, Clawson turned the Rams into the Patriot League champions in his fourth season. He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in both 2001 and 2002. Clawson helped the Rams 2002 FCS Playoffs where they defeated fourth seed Northeastern in the opening round before falling to Villanova.

Clawson was named the head coach at Richmond prior to the 2004 season. He guided the Spiders to the biggest two-year turnaround in school history, improving from 3-8 in 2004 to 9-4 in 2005. In 2007, his final year with the Spiders, Clawson guided Richmond to an 11-3 record, the Colonial South title and the FCS national semifinals.

He left Richmond in 2008 to replace David Cutcliffe as the offensive coordinator under Phillip Fulmer at Tennessee. Following that season, Clawson was named the head coach at Bowling Green in time for the 2009 season.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

GAME 2 WAKE FOREST 51, TOWSON 20 SEPTEMBER 8, 2018 BB&T FIELD (23,619)

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Wide receiver Greg Dortch had three touchdowns, including two from punt returns, and 310 total yards of offense on Saturday as Wake Forest defeated Towson 51-20.

Wake Forest (2-0) used a balanced attack behind Dortch, freshman quarterback Sam Hartman, and running back Cade Carney in the win over Towson (1-1).

Dortch became just the fourth player in ACC history with two punt return touchdowns in a game and totaled the third most all-purpose yards in a single game in school history. He also added an acrobatic touchdown grab in the first quarter.

The Deacons jumped on the board early with a quick drive that resulted in a highlight-reel catch from Alex Bachman. Wake Forest then made it 14-7 with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Hartman to Dortch. The drive spanned 62 yards in just 1:01 and three plays.

At the start of the second quarter, Hartman rushed for his first career touchdown, scoring on a 14-yard run to break the stalemate. Essang Bassey intercepted Tom Flacco on the next drive, putting the Deacons back on offense. Nick Sciba drilled a 35-yard field goal as Wake Forest led 24-14 early in the second frame.

Minutes later, Dortch torched the special teams of Towson with a 70-yard punt return touchdown. The touchdown put Dortch over 200 all-purpose yards for the fourth-straight game, the first Wake Forest player ever to hit that mark.

Dortch returned a 60-yard punt for a touchdown in the waning minutes of the first half to continue his historic pace. Towson scored a touchdown shortly before halftime and missed the two-point conversion as Wake Forest took a 38-20 lead into the locker room.

Sciba added a 27-yard field goal in the third quarter followed by a 1-yard touchdown run by Carney in the fourth quarter as Wake Forest led 48-20. Sciba tacked on another 27-yarder in the fourth quarter.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. — The Wake Forest offense scored early and scored often Saturday (Sept. 29), as the Demon Deacons cruised past Rice, 56-24, on Family Weekend.

The Demon Deacon (3-2, 0-1 ACC) offense exploded in the opening 30 minutes of play, taking a 42-3 lead into the half-time break. The 42 points are a single-half record under head coach Dave Clawson while the 21 points in the first quarter are tied for the second-most in a single quarter in the Clawson era.

Greg Dortch tied his own school record for touchdown receptions in a game (4) and finished the day with 163 receiving yards. Cade Carney had his first multi-touchdown day since September 10, 2016, while Matt Colburn II became the 12th player in program history to surpass 2,000 career rushing yards to pace the offense. Quarterback Sam Hartman finished the day 15-of-17 for 241 yards and four touchdown passes.

Wake Forest recorded a pair of defensive touchdowns against Rice (1-4, 0-1 C-USA), returning two interceptions to the end zone.

The Deacs stormed out to a 28-0 lead as Dortch and Carney traded touchdowns through the first 17 minutes. After punting on their first drive, the Deacs scored touchdowns on their next six, sparked by a 54-yard pass from Hartman to Dortch less than five minutes into the game to make it 7-0 in favor of the Deacs. Carney rushed on six of Wake Forest's seven plays on the next drive for 31 yards, capped off by a 1-yard touchdown run as the lead grew to 14-0.

Hartman was the featured Deacon on the next drive, completing all four pass attempts on a seven-play, 61-yard drive, connecting with Dortch for a 10-yard touchdown to push the lead to 21-0. Masterson had the first interception of his career and returned it 43 yards, setting up a short field and an eventual 1-yard TD plunge from Carney.

Following a Rice field goal, Hartman and Dortch again connected, this time for a 38-yard touchdown to push the lead to 35-3 with 8:10 left in the second quarter. Zeek Rodney forced a fumble and Essang Bassey returned it 51 yards for a touchdown, extending the advantage to 42-3 at the break.

Hartman found Dortch for a gain of 25 before hitting Jack Freudenthal down the sideline for 42 yards on the very next play. Two plays later, Hartman connected with Dortch for the fourth time of the afternoon to extend the lead to 49-10.

The defense stepped up for its second score of the afternoon with Chuck Wade, Jr. intercepting Stankavage and returning it 60 yards to the end zone midway through the third quarter before Rice added a pair of touchdowns to close out play.
