BB&T FIELD 50TH ANNIVERSARY

- Wake Forest's BB&T Field will celebrate its 50th birthday in 2018. Opened in 1968 as Groves Stadium, the Demon Deacons have played 287 games and compiled a record of 128-157-4.
- BB&T Field has hosted two ACC Championship teams in the 1970 squad and the 2006 team.
- The first game was against NC State on Sept. 14, 1968. Wake Forest's first win at the stadium came on Oct. 26, 1968 with a 48-31 win over North Carolina.
- Wake Forest has gone undefeated at BB&T Field on two occasions, posting a 5-0 mark in 1979 and a 4-0 record in 1970. Three times Wake Forest has won five home games in a season: 1979, 2007 and 2008.
- Head coach Dave Clawson, with 13 home wins in his first four seasons, needs three victories in 2018 to become the second-winningest coach at BB&T Field.

NOTING THE NOTRE DAME GAME

- Notre Dame remained undefeated in the series with Wake Forest with Saturday's 56-27 win at BB&T Field in front of a season-high crowd of 31,092 fans.
- Kendall Hinton made his 2018 season debut and had three receptions for 23 yards while also running for a 23-yard touchdown from the quarterback position. QB Jamie Newman saw his first action of the season in the second half against Notre Dame and set career-highs for rushing yards and attempts while scoring his first career touchdown.
- For the second straight year, RB Matt Colburn II rushed for a touchdown against Notre Dame, this time on a two-yard run. Cade Carney led the Deacons in rushing with 79 yards. RB Christian Beal-Smith had a career-high 10 carries vs. Notre Dame and added his first career kickoff return of 20 yards.
- Wake Forest has rushed for over 250 yards in each of its last three games, notching 259 on the ground against the Fighting Irish. The Demon Deacons had not rushed for 250 or more yards in three straight games since the final three games of the 1971 season.
- PK Nick Sciba kicked two field goals vs. Notre Dame including a career-long 39-yarder, while Chuck Wade, Jr. had a career-high nine tackles.
- The Notre Dame game snapped a streak of 11 straight games in which the Demon Deacons had thrown at least one touchdown pass.

TIE IT UP

- Before the NCAA instituted overtime in 1996, Wake Forest had played 33 tie games in its history. The last tie for the Deacs was against Rice on Sept. 30, 1989 at BB&T Field.
- The two teams entered the fourth quarter tied at 7. Rice went up 10-7 with 11:14 to play in fourth quarter before Wake Forest took a 14-10 lead on a Ricky Proehl 13-yard pass from Phil Barnhill with 4:26 remaining.
- After another Rice score put the Owls up 17-14, Wake Forest drove to the Rice nine-yard line and Wilson Hoyle kicked a 27-yard FG to tie the game at 17.

HINTON, NEWMAN MAKE DEBUTS

- Kendall Hinton made his first appearance of the season following a three-game suspension. Jamie Newman also made his first appearance of 2018 after missing the first three games with an injury.
- Hinton caught his first college pass and finished the game with three receptions for 23 yards.
- Hinton took a snap at QB, one play after Jamie Newman lost his helmet and had to exit the field for one play. That play resulted in a 23-yard touchdown run for Hinton, his 11th career rushing touchdown.
- Newman saw considerable action in the second half, completing 4-of-7 passes for 29 yards. The redshirt sophomore was Wake Forest's second-leading rusher with 73 yards on just eight carries, an average of 9.1 yards per carry. It was Newman's first appearance in a game since closing out the game against Utah State early in the 2017 season.
- Newman's 73 yards rushing vs. Notre Dame were the most by a Demon Deacon QB this season.

LIGHT THE DORTCH

- WR Greg Dortch is second in the nation and first in the ACC in all-purpose yards this week after gaining 109 yards vs. Notre Dame. Dortch is averaging 195.8 yards per game in 2018, up from his 2017 season average of 161.2 YPG.
- Dortch also leads the ACC in receptions per game (8.5) and punt return average (17.0). He is third in the ACC in kickoff return average (23.4) and tied for second with 98.0 receiving yards per game. His 8.5 receptions per game rank second nationally.
- Dortch has now had eight straight games of 100 or more all-purpose yards.
- The redshirt sophomore remains the only player in FBS with two punt return touchdowns.

WAKE FOREST FOOTBALL

GROUND GAME

- Wake Forest rushed for 259 yards vs. Notre Dame, the most the Deacons have gained on the ground in five games with the Fighting Irish.
- Saturday's game marked the third-straight game the Deacons have pounded out 250 or more yards rushing. The last time Wake Forest had three straight 250-yard games occurred in the final three games of the 1971 season. That year, the Deacons closed the season with 307 yards vs. William & Mary, 345 vs. Duke and 298 vs. South Carolina.
- Wake Forest has rushed for 200 or more yards in eight of its 17 games since the start of the 2017 campaign.

COLBURN CLOSING IN

- Senior RB Mat Colburn II is about to join an elite group of Demon Deacon players to rush for 2,000 or more career yards. Colburn enters the Rice contest with 1,997 career rushing yards in 40 career games.
- Only 11 players in Wake Forest history have rushed for 2,000 or more yards in their career. The last Deacon to go over 2,000 yards was Josh Harris in 2013 who finished his career with 2,230 career yards.
- Colburn is averaging a healthy 4.5 yards per carry for his career and is tops among all active Deacons with 12 career rushing touchdowns. The senior has seven career 100-yard games including 117 yards vs. Boston College.
- If Colburn continues on his current pace of 57.0 yards per game, he could get to 2,453 career yards which would place him sixth in school history.

NEWS & NOTES

- Wake Forest is the least-penalized team in the FBS this week, averaging just 3.0 penalties per game. The Deacons are ninth in the nation in fewest penalty yards with 128.
- Wake Forest's offense leads the ACC and is fifth nationally in first downs with 118. The Deacons have had at least 27 first downs in every game this season and in five-straight games dating back to last year.

- Wake Forest is 14th in the nation in rushing yards with an average of 262.8 per game. The school record is 304 yards rushing per game by the 1971 team. Wake Forest last ranked among the top 20 rushing teams in the nation in 2004 with a No. 17 ranking.
- PK Nick Sciba ranks seventh in the nation with 2.0 field goals made per game.
- The Notre Dame game marked the first game that QB Sam Hartman did not throw a TD pass. Hartman was the first Wake Forest QB since Mike Elkins in 1986 to have thrown multiple touchdown passes in each of the first three games of the season.

SUSTAINED DRIVES

- Wake Forest leads the nation in scoring drives of 10 or more plays.
- The Deacons have 11 sustained scoring drives (seven touchdowns, 4 field goals) that took 10 or more plays.

DO IT ALL DORTCH

- Greg Dortch ranks third in the nation in combined kick returns with 170 punt return yards and 211 kickoff return yards.
- Dortch is the only player in the country with more than 150 yards in receiving, punt return yards and kickoff return yards. Last year, only one player, Christian Kirk of Texas A&M, finished the season with greater than 150 yards in all three categories.

SPECIAL TEAMS SPOTLIGHT

- Wake Forest is the only school with three punt return touchdowns on the season.
- Greg Dortch returned two punts for touchdowns against Towson on Sept. 8.
- The Deacons' Demetrius Kemp blocked a punt against Boston College on Sept. 13 that was recovered in the end zone for a touchdown by Malik Grate. The blocked punt counts statistically as a punt return for a touchdown.
- The three punt returns for touchdowns ties the school record set in 1945.

DEACS ON OFFENSIVE STREAK

- Wake Forest's 512 total yards of offense against Boston College on Sept. 13 marked the fourth-straight game, dating back to 2017, that the Deacons have had 500 or more total offense yards.
- The Deacons had 646 total offense yards against Texas A&M in the Belk Bowl to close the 2017 season, then opened 2018 with 532 yards at Tulane, 582 yards vs. Towson, and 512 vs. BC.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

- Wake Forest had a pair of 100-yard rushers against Boston College. Cade Carney carried 18 times for 116 yards while Matt Colburn II had 117 yards on 23 carries and his first touchdown of the season.
- Wake Forest is now 15-4 in games in which it has two 100-yard rushers. It marked the first loss with double 100-yard rushers since 1988. It was just the eighth time that the Deacons had a pair of 100-yard rushers against an ACC opponent and the first time since last year's Syracuse contest when Colburn II had 237 and John Wolford added 136.
- Colburn now has 1,997 career rushing yards and needs just three yards to get to 2,000 rushing yards for his career. He would become the 12th player in school history to surpass 2,000 career rushing yards.
- Carney has pushed his career total to 1,200 rushing yards and enters the Rice game ranked 31st in school history in career rushing yards.

FOURTH DOWN PROFICIENCY

- Wake Forest was a remarkable 6 of 7 on fourth down conversions against Boston College, which is believed to be a modern school record for both attempts and conversions.
- The previous high for fourth-down attempts in game had been six against Rutgers in 1997 while the previous high for conversions had been four against Stanford in 2010.

DORTCH TOPS 1,000 YARDS

- Greg Dortch went over 1,000 yards in career receiving in just his 11th career game against Boston College on Sept. 13. He became the fastest Wake Forest player to surpass 1,000 career yards.
- Dortch moved past Chris Givens (2009-11), Jason Anderson (2001-04), Todd Dixon (1990-93), and Wayne Baumgardner (1978-81), who all needed 19 games to collect 1,000 career receiving yards.

DORTCH TWICE AS NICE ON SPECIAL TEAMS

- Redshirt sophomore WR Greg Dortch continues to put the flame to the Wake Forest record book. Dortch had two punt returns for touchdowns against Towson on Sept. 8, scoring on returns of 70 and 60 yards.
- The last and only other Deacon with two punt returns for scores in a game was Johnny Cox who turned the feat against Davidson in 1927.
- Dortch became just the fourth player in ACC history with two punt return touchdowns in a game: Devin Hester (Miami) vs. Louisiana Tech in 2004; Ryan Switzer (UNC) vs. Pitt in 2013; Andre Purvis (UNC) vs. Tulane in 1993.
- His 43.7 yards per punt return in a game set an ACC record for PR average (min. 3 returns), breaking the mark of 41.8 by Don Kelly of Clemson vs. Maryland in 1970.

PENALTY FREE

- For the first time in over 50 years, Wake Forest was not called for a penalty against Towson on Sept. 8.
- The last time that happened was in 1964 when the Deacons played at Memphis.
- The only other recorded instance happened in 1960 at South Carolina.

HARTMAN IN THE RANKINGS

- QB Sam Hartman is second in the nation in total offense among freshmen with 287.0 yards per game. Texas Tech's Alan Bowman is tops at 387.3 YPG.
- Hartman is third nationally among freshmen in completions per game (20.0), third in passing touchdowns (6), third in passing yards (944), third in points responsible for (42), seventh in completion percentage (.544) and eighth in passing efficiency (115.0).

QUARTERBACK LONGEVITY

- Since 2010, only one school in the nation has had fewer starting quarterbacks in the season-opener than Wake Forest. Sam Hartman became just the fourth opening day starter over the past nine seasons for the Deacs.
- Ted Stachitas started the opener in 2010 for the Demon Deacons before yielding to Tanner Price who started in 2011, 2012 and 2013.
- John Wolford started the season-opener for four straight years from 2014-17.
- Only Troy, with three different opening day starters, has fewer than Wake Forest.
- Wake Forest is tied with Duke, Missouri, Nebraska, Penn State, Syracuse and Western Kentucky for the second-fewest.

BREAK IT UP, BASSEY

- Wake Forest corner Essang Bassey had quite the sophomore campaign in 2017. Bassey tied the school record with 19 passes defended, including three interceptions and 16 pass break-ups.
- An honorable mention All-ACC pick last year, Bassey was second in the league in passes defended. After starting all 13 games, Bassey had three PBUs in the Belk Bowl and was named to ESPN's All-ACC Bowl team.
- He has been named a third team preseason All-ACC pick by Athlon in 2018.
- On the year, Bassey has five breakups and one interception. His 1.5 passes defended per game ranks 27th in all of FBS and fourth in the ACC.

ARBY'S, WE HAVE THE BEEF (BOYS)

- Wake Forest is one of 18 schools in FBS to return all five offensive line starters from 2017. Boston College is the only other ACC school with all five starters returning.
- Wake Forest had 131 career starts entering the start of the season, ranking third nationally behind Wisconsin (150 career O-line starts) and Boston College (139).
- The Deacons are led by LG Phil Haynes (38 career starts), C Ryan Anderson (34), RT Jake Benzinger (18) and RG Patrick Osterhage (15).
- Nate Gilliam (7 career starts) has also seen extensive action on the offensive line.
- In 2017, the Beef Boys cut their sacks allowed by 49 percent, having allowed just 20 after yielding 39 in 2016.
- Justin Herron started his 38th game against Tulane on Aug. 30 but suffered a season-ending knee injury.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE

- Grad transfer Eric Osteen graduated from West Point in 2013 and fulfilled his five-year commitment to the Army.
- Osteen filled a variety of roles including serving as a platoon leader, company executive officer and company logistics officer. Because he only played two years of football for the Black Knights, Osteen has a year of eligibility remaining. His last game was the 2012 Army-Navy game.
- At age 28, Osteen is the fourth-oldest player in the FBS this season. Colorado sophomore PK James Stefanou is 31; Maryland junior punter Wade Lees is 30, Houston junior punter Dane Roy is 29 and Osteen is fourth at 28.
- Osteen and his wife, Erin, live in Winston-Salem where she is an anesthesiology resident at Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center.
- Osteen registered two touchbacks against Tulane and added three more against Towson for four on the year.

ON THIS DATE IN DEACON FOOTBALL HISTORY - SEPTEMBER 29 - RECORD: 3-13

1990: Wake Forest gave head coach Bill Dooley the 150th victory of his remarkable career and did so in record-setting style, downing Army 52-14 in front of a Homecoming crowd at Groves Stadium. Anthony Williams carried 19 times for 136 yards and two touchdowns. The Deacon defense forced six Army turnovers and George Coghill staked the Deacons to an early lead with a 72-yard punt return for a score. Wake Forest's 52 points were the most ever scored by a Deacon squad in Groves Stadium's 22-year history.

1951: Quarterback Ed Kissell was named North Carolina's "Athlete of the Week" in leading Wake Forest to a 21-6 win over NC State at Riddick Stadium in Raleigh. Kissell threw for one touchdown and ran for another to lead the Deacons. After a scoreless first half, Ed McClure got the Deacons on the scoreboard when he blocked Alex Webster's punt and scooped it and raced for a touchdown.

1944: Wake Forest tripped Georgia in Athens by utilizing the Statue of Liberty play and posting a 14-7 win over the Bulldogs. The two teams were scoreless in the third quarter when Bob Smathers carried the ball to the Georgia eight-yard line on the Statue of Liberty. Rock Brinkley scored on a 2-yard run on the first play of the fourth quarter to supply the winning points.

Dave Clawson

Head Coach

5th Year

Williams ■ 1989

Four may not be Dave Clawson's lucky number but perhaps it should be. Having recently completed his fourth season at Wake Forest, his fourth head coaching stop, Clawson seems to always strike gold in Year Four.

Clawson, who started his head coaching career at Fordham in 1999, took the Rams to a 10-3 record in his fourth year in The Bronx and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. Clawson started at Richmond in 2004 and had the Spiders at 11-3 and in the FCS semifinals in Year Four. At Bowling Green, Clawson's fourth season produced an 8-5 record and a berth in the Military Bowl. Year Four at Wake Forest as no less magical with the Deacons sitting at 8-5 following a thrilling 55-52 win over Texas A&M in the Belk Bowl in December.

For four seasons with the Demon Deacons, Clawson has preached strong defense and patience on offense. Year Four brought an avalanche of offense as his group of attackers, thrown into the fire in 2014 as youngsters, matured into a tenacious group that set school records for scoring and total offense.

The Demon Deacons set 105 records in 2017, tied another 15 marks, and became one of the nation's most efficient and productive offenses. Wake Forest set major records for points scored in a season, obliterating the record by 97 points. The offense set new marks for total offense yards in a game and in a season, yards per carry, most touchdowns scored and most touchdown passes in a season. The defense set a record with 106 tackles for loss.

But two records stand out: Wake Forest had 11 players selected for 12 All-ACC positions, and as a team, the Deacons beat six bowl teams in 2017.

The 2016 season marked year three in a career that has steadily shown vast improvement in year three. During his time at Fordham, Richmond and Bowling Green, Clawson's year three teams averaged six wins. He exceeded that mark with seven victories in 2016.

With the 2016 addition of McCreary Field House, Wake Forest's state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, and the construction of the Sutton Sports Performance Center, which will mark yet another technologically advanced facility, Clawson and the Deacons are clearly on a roll.

On December 10, 2013, Clawson became the 32nd head football coach in Wake Forest University history. The head coach at Bowling Green State University from 2009 through 2013, Clawson led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois.

Clawson joined the Demon Deacons after five seasons as the head coach at BGSU in Bowling Green, Ohio. He built the Falcons to be explosive both offensively and defensively. The 2013 Bowling Green team ranked 29th in the nation in total offense and tenth in total defense. In 2012, BGSU was ranked sixth in the nation in total defense and 10th nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.8 points per game. The Falcons were one of only two non-power conference teams to rank in the top 30 statistically in both total offense and total defense in 2013.

Bowling Green's 2013 team went 10-3 overall under Clawson and won the MAC East title with a 7-1 record. The Falcons received a bid to the Little Caesar's Bowl in Detroit. It marked the third bowl appearance in five seasons for Clawson's team.

In his 18 years as a head coach, Clawson delivered a conference championship at each of his first three stops. Prior to the 2013 Mid-American Conference title at Bowling Green, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

He has also earned numerous Coach of the Year awards.

He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in just his second year in the league. The 2007 CAA Coach of the Year award marked his fourth conference Coach of the Year honor in his first nine years as a head coach.

In 2002, Clawson was the Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

A 1989 graduate of Williams College in Massachusetts, Clawson earned a degree in political economy. A native of Youngstown, N.Y., Clawson was a defensive back for Williams and went on to serve as a graduate assistant coach at Albany in 1989 and 1990. He moved to Buffalo for the 1991 and 1992 seasons, tutoring the secondary his first year and the quarterbacks and running backs his second.

In 1993, Clawson was named the running backs coach at Lehigh and helped the Mountain Hawks to a 7-4 record and the Patriot League championship. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 1994 and spent two years in that role, adding another Patriot League title in 1995. Lehigh won a pair of Patriot League titles in his three years and his offense led the league in scoring, total offense and pass offense in each of his final two seasons.

Villanova hired Clawson as offensive coordinator in 1996 and his offense helped the Wildcats to NCAA FCS appearances in 1996 and 1997. During his tenure at Villanova, Clawson's offense established 70 program records, held the No. 1 ranking in the nation for six weeks in 1997 and won the 1997 Atlantic 10 championship. He tutored Brian Westbrook who became the first player in college football history to gain 1,000 yards both rushing and receiving.

Following the 1998 season, Clawson became the nation's youngest Division I head coach when he was named head coach at Fordham. Inheriting a team that had won just 22 games in the previous 10 years, Clawson turned the Rams into the Patriot League champions in his fourth season. He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in both 2001 and 2002. Clawson helped the Rams 2002 FCS Playoffs where they defeated fourth seed Northeastern in the opening round before falling to Villanova.

Clawson was named the head coach at Richmond prior to the 2004 season. He guided the Spiders to the biggest two-year turnaround in school history, improving from 3-8 in 2004 to 9-4 in 2005. In 2007, his final year with the Spiders, Clawson guided Richmond to an 11-3 record, the Colonial South title and the FCS national semifinals.

He left Richmond in 2008 to replace David Cutcliffe as the offensive coordinator under Phillip Fulmer at Tennessee. Following that season, Clawson was named the head coach at Bowling Green in time for the 2009 season.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

GAME 2 WAKE FOREST 51, TOWSON 20 SEPTEMBER 8, 2018 BB&T FIELD (23,619)

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Wide receiver Greg Dortch had three touchdowns, including two from punt returns, and 310 total yards of offense on Saturday as Wake Forest defeated Towson 51-20.

Wake Forest (2-0) used a balanced attack behind Dortch, freshman quarterback Sam Hartman, and running back Cade Carney in the win over Towson (1-1).

Dortch became just the fourth player in ACC history with two punt return touchdowns in a game and totaled the third most all-purpose yards in a single game in school history. He also added an acrobatic touchdown grab in the first quarter.

The Deacons jumped on the board early with a quick drive that resulted in a highlight-reel catch from Alex Bachman. Wake Forest then made it 14-7 with a 7-yard touchdown pass from Hartman to Dortch. The drive spanned 62 yards in just 1:01 and three plays.

At the start of the second quarter, Hartman rushed for his first career touchdown, scoring on a 14-yard run to break the stalemate. Essang Bassey intercepted Tom Flacco on the next drive, putting the Deacons back on offense. Nick Sciba drilled a 35-yard field goal as Wake Forest led 24-14 early in the second frame.

Minutes later, Dortch torched the special teams of Towson with a 70-yard punt return touchdown. The touchdown put Dortch over 200 all-purpose yards for the fourth-straight game, the first Wake Forest player ever to hit that mark.

Dortch returned a 60-yard punt for a touchdown in the waning minutes of the first half to continue his historic pace. Towson scored a touchdown shortly before halftime and missed the two-point conversion as Wake Forest took a 38-20 lead into the locker room.

Sciba added a 27-yard field goal in the third quarter followed by a 1-yard touchdown run by Carney in the fourth quarter as Wake Forest led 48-20. Sciba tacked on another 27-yarder in the fourth quarter.
