ACC 50TH ANNIVERSARY TEAM

In conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the ACC, the league announced its 50-member anniversary team in the fall of 2002.

Jake Austin (1989-1992)

A four-time All-ACC selection ... Left Wake Forest as the school's all-time leader in home runs (55), triples (13) and at-bats with 919 ... Ranks 10th all-time in the ACC in home runs (55) and RBIs (236).

Tommy Gregg (1982-1985)

A three-time first team All-ACC selection ... Went on to play nine seasons in the major leagues, most notably with the Atlanta Braves ... Finished his Wake Forest career with 100 stolen bases, fourth-best in ACC history ... His five stolen bases in a single game in 1984 still ties for an ACC record.

Mike MacDougal (1997-1999)

A two-time All-ACC selection ... Went 13-2 with a 2.37 ERA on Wake Forest's 1999 ACC Championship team ... Fanned 108 batters in 114 innings ... Struck out 288 batters in just three seasons ... Threw a no-hitter against Duke in 1999 ... Was the first round draft pick of Kansas City in 1999 and made his major league debut with the Royals in the summer of 2001 ... Earned a place on the American League All-Star team as a closer in 2003.

Bill Merrifield (1981-1983)

Earned ACC Player of the Year honors in 1982 and 1983 ... Batted .389 in 1982 with 20 HR and 61 RBI ... Hit .476 in 1983 with 17 HR and 64 RBI ... His .476 average is still the best single-season batting average in ACC history ... His .400 career batting average ranks third all-time in ACC history.

WAKE FOREST CAPTURES 1955 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Jack McGinley's strong right arm and iron nerve carried Wake Forest to the championship of the College World Series Thursday night before 2,042.

The team from the small Baptist school in North Carolina defeated Western Michigan, 7-6. It's the first title for the Carolinians, who went to the finals once before.

That was in 1949. Texas U. won, 10-3, in the finals held in Wichita. It's the first title for their section of the country.

McGinley was the third pitcher for Wake Forest. The team, minus its star performer, was in bad shape for pitching before the game. With ace pitcher Lefty Davis back at school, Coach Taylor Sanford planned to use several men on the hill.

He started Bill Walsh, then used Buck Fichter. McGinley came on the scene in the fourth inning.

The bases were full, the score 4-3 for the other side. The batter, Tom Cxyz, hit an easy grounder but the shortstop missed. Two runs scored.

McGinley slammed the door. He fanned Jack Smith, then went the rest of the way on three hits. It is McGinley's third tournament victory.

It wasn't a great team triumph. The champions contributed two errors which hurt badly, and what was considered a well-rested Michigan pitching staff gave up 12 hits.

Wake Forest simply had the determination which carried the team through.

The Carolinians put over three runs in the second and third to oust starter Gary Graham. Western Michigan then collected three in the last of the third on some timely hitting.

Fichter, nicked for three in the fourth, was a victim of sloppy fielding.

The decision came in the eighth. Luther McKee walked. He advanced two bases on as many passed balls by the time reliever Miki Schwartzkoff fanned two men.

Linwood Holt drove a single through the middle of the diamond for the all-important run. Frank McRae also hit, but Schwartzkoff fanned Bill Barnes to close out the inning.

McRae was the game's top slugger. He opened with a double and followed with four straight singles, driving in three.

1962 & 1963 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS

Deacons Beat Virginia for 1962 ACC Title Wake Forest blanks Cavaliers, 7-0

It came down to one game for Wake Forest and Virginia.

All the marbles.

The whole ball of wax.

When all the chips were on the table, the Deacons left no doubt about where the 1962 ACC Championship belonged. Wake Forest shut out Virginia 7-0 in a playoff between the teams that tied for the regular season championship.

The Deacons stormed out to a 9-2 record in the conference but spiraled down the stretch losing its final three regular season conference games, requiring a playoff to determine the ACC Champion.

Wake Forest would not let its late-season slide end an otherwise stellar season.

Winning the conference, the Deacons moved into NCAA Tournament play and won its first two games against West Virginia and Florida but dropped two games to Florida State.

The team finished with a 20-11 record and the second championship in the league's nine-year history.

Wake Forest Wins Back-to-Back ACC Championships Deacons Run Away with 1963 Title

After needing a playoff in 1962 to determine the Atlantic Coast Conference champion, the 1963 Demon Deacon squad took an early lead in the standings and never looked back. Wake Forest finished the year with an 11-3 record, two full games ahead of second place Clemson.

The 1963 team set a new school record for wins, wrapping up the campaign with a 28-11 record. The record would stand for another 15 years until the 1977 season when the Deacons would capture another ACC title.

Five players were selected to All-ACC teams including first teamers Bill Scripture (OF), Wayne Martin (C) and Louis Howard (P). All three were also named to the ABCA All-America teams. Scripture was a first team selection. Wake Forest's middle infielder combination of David Miller (2B) and Walt Noell (SS) were chosen to the All-ACC second team.

WF 1977 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

Deacons Clobber Clemson, 22-9, For 4th ACC Title Wake Forest sets new record for runs in ACC Tournament game

Clemson, S.C. -- Wake Forest captured its fourth Atlantic Coast Conference title in fine fashion with a 22-9 win over tournament host and number one ranked Clemson. Head coach Marvin Crater's Deacons went 4-0 in the tournament, posting come-from-behind victories in all four contests.

In the championship game, Wake Forest fell behind 2-0 in the second inning but plated four runs in the bottom half of the frame and hung a nine-spot in the third inning. In the fourth inning, Clemson cut the lead to 13-5 but would get no closer as the Deacons scored three in the fourth, two in the fifth and four in the seventh to pull away for a 22-9 victory.

Ken Gerrity paced the Wake Forest offense with five hits in six at-bats, scoring three times while driving in two. John Pacer and Al Zyskowski each had four base hits. Everyone in the Deacon lineup had hits. Pacer, Doug Henley and Stan Johnson each homered for Wake Forest.

Wake Forest reliever Chip Darracott was the beneficiary of the outstanding run support. He was credited with the win, though he allowed three runs in 1 2/3 innings, relieving starter Merle Henkel.

It was Darracott's second win of the ACC Tournament. Two days earlier, he defeated Maryland.

Wake Forest earned the title by defeating Duke 2-1, Maryland 10-7, Clemson 5-4 before Sunday's 22-9 championship game win over Clemson.

In the title game, the Deacons set four new ACC Tournament records including most runs (22), combined runs (31), most hits (21), most home runs (3), walks (10).

Borrell Shuts Down Seminoles, Deacs Win ACC Title

John Hendricks Named Tournament MVP

Durham, N.C. (AP) -- Left-hander Danny Borrell held the Seminoles to three runs on six hits in a complete game as he led Wake Forest (41-21) to a 6-2 victory over Florida State (49-18) for the Demon Deacons' first ACC Championship since 1977.

Borrell (3-2) struck out four and walked four in his first start against an ACC opponent. He retired the first seven batters of the game.

First baseman Jon Palmieri belted an RBI-double in the first inning as Wake Forest quickly got a 1-0 lead. Palmieri then led off the third with a triple and scored on a base hit by third baseman Corey Slavik. Slavik came home on a single by catcher Andrew Riepe to increase the Deacons' lead to 3-0.

FSU third baseman Jose Zabala walked and scored on a base hit by centerfielder Brian Cox as the Seminoles cut Wake Forest's lead to 3-1. Cox extended his hitting streak to 19 games.

Wake Forest made the score 5-1 on a two-run single by Riepe in the fifth inning. Right fielder Ben Danosky doubled and scored on a base hit by Slavik in the sixth to add one more run to the Deacons' total.

Second baseman Brooks Badeaux walked and came home on a sacrifice fly by catcher Jeremy Salazar as the Seminoles made the score 6-2.

Right-hander Chris Chavez (7-4) gave up five runs and ten hits in 4 1/3 innings pitched in the loss. Chavez struck out three and walked two in the appearance.

Right fielder Matt Diaz set a new ACC Tournament record with 14 hits with a single in the ninth

Deacons Capture Back-To-Back ACC Championships Andrew Riepe Named Tournament MVP

Durham, N.C. (AP) -- Wake Forest repeated as ACC baseball champions on May 22, 1999, rallying with nine unanswered runs while getting some clutch relief pitching from David Bush in a 9-5 victory over Clemson in the tournament title game.

Wake Forest (44-13) set a single-season mark for wins while capturing its ninth straight Atlantic Coast Conference tourney victory - one shy of the league record set by Georgia Tech in the mid-1980s.

"Nobody would have believed this. Four years ago we were playing in the play-in game and to win back-to-back titles and to beat teams like Florida State, this is just a great bunch of guys," said senior star Jon Palmieri.

The Demon Deacon starting pitchers have been masterful in their last eight ACC postseason games, each going at least eight innings. But Danny Borrell was wild and didn't make it out of the fourth inning against the Tigers (37-24), who were playing in the title game about an hour after knocking top-seeded Florida State from the double-elimination event.

But Bush, a freshman from Devon, Pa., retired nine straight Clemson batters to allow the Demon Deacons time to battle back from a 5-0 deficit. Bush, recruited as a catcher, ended up retiring 16 of the 17 batters he faced, striking out six as Wake Forest won its sixth ACC title.

"You can't do any better than that," Wake Forest coach George Greer said of Bush's performance.

Bush, who pitched a scoreless inning earlier in the day, caught the last out - a pop-up.

"It couldn't come down quick enough," Bush said. "I wanted to grab it and just start celebrating."

WAKE FOREST WINS THIRD ACC TITLE IN FOUR YEARS

CORY SULLIVAN PITCHES EIGHT INNINGS, HITS TWO HR IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

Fort Mill, S.C. (AP) -- Cory Sullivan led off the ACC Tournament Championship game with a home run and Wake Forest never looked back on its way to a 17-4 win over NC State.

The title is the program's third in the last four years.

Sullivan did it all for the Deacons in the game. At the plate, he was 3-for-3, with three runs, five RBIs and two home runs. On the mound, Sullivan (6-0) went eight innings, allowing four runs and seven hits to earn the win.

"Cory Sullivan, what can I say? He leads the game off with a home run and comes out in the bottom of the inning and strikes people out. He hits another home run and gets a big RBI single. He is just immense. He is what college baseball is all about--someone who can do it all," head coach George Greer said.

Reliever Dave Bush pitched the final inning for Greer's Deacons. Bush was making his fourth appearance in the tournament. The junior right hander earned tournament MVP honors and finished the week with a 1-0 record and two saves.

Wake Forest was able to post a pair of six-run innings in the second and sixth.

In addition to the run support he gave himself, Sullivan received help from Jamie D'Antona and Nick Blue. D'Antona's three-run homer in the second inning was his second of the tournament.
