Scoring through 12 Games

2021: 515 Points

2022: 442 Points

- Through 12 games into the 2022 season, Wake Forest is averaging 36.8 points per game.
 - Wake Forest is the only program in the ACC to average at least 30.0 per game in each of the last six seasons, the fourth longest streak in ACC history:
 - 12 - Florida State (1992-03)
 - 10 - Clemson (2011-20)
 - 8 - Florida State (2008-16)
 - 6 - Wake Forest (2017-22)
- Since the start of the 2017 season, Wake Forest's 182 touchdown passes are the most of any school in the ACC and that total ranks eighth nationally during that span. Additionally during that span, the Deacs 329 total touchdowns are the second-most in the ACC behind Clemson and rank 12th nationally.
 - North Carolina (166) and Clemson (161) trail the Deacs in passing touchdowns during that span entering bowl season.
 - The Tigers entered bowl season with 403 total touchdowns and the Tar Heels trail the Deacs with 312.
 - Wake Forest has now thrown for 40 touchdowns as a team this season. The program record was set last season with 39 passing touchdowns.

MOST TACKLES SINCE 2000

- Ryan Smenda Jr. has had his best season as a Demon Deacon, recording 106.0 tackles in just 11 games. His 344 career tackles are the most by a Demon Deacon since the turn of the century and is the 14th most in the conference since 2005.
- Smenda's 9.6 tackles per game rank 18th in the country entering bowl season and seventh in the Power-5.

QB1 CLIMBING THE CHARTS

- R-Junior Sam Hartman continued to add to his impressive career totals against Duke, completing 26-of-42 passes for 347 yards and three touchdowns.
- With the three passing touchdowns against Duke, Hartman is now second in ACC history with 125 touchdowns responsible for in his career, pulling ahead of Malik Cunningham. Additionally, he is now tied for career passing touchdowns with 107 in his career with Tajh Boyd (Clemson).
- Additionally, Hartman is in first as the FBS career-active leader in passing touchdowns while ranking 19th in FBS history, tied with Chad Pennington (Marshall) and Boyd and two away from Russell Wilson's career total (NC State/Wisconsin):

FBS Active Career Passing TD Leaders

1. Sam Hartman (Wake Forest)	107
2. Clayton Tune (Houston)	101
3. Dillon Gabriel (Oklahoma)	94
3. Holton Ahlers (ECU)	92

ALWAYS OPEN 9

- Against Duke, A.T. Perry caught a eight passes for 87 yards yards and a touchdown, Perry has now totaled over 2,500 yards receiving yards, ranking third in program history
- His 160 career receptions rank in the top eighth in program history. Additionally, he trails Cam Serine in receptions in the Dave Clawson era.
- His touchdown reception now moves this total to 28 which is a Wake Forest record by three and is tied for seventh in conference history:

1. Clarkston Hines	38 (1986-89; Duke)
2. Peter Warrick	32 (1995-99; Florida State)
3. Torrey Holt	31 (1995-98; North Carolina State)

NOTING THE TIGERS

- This marks the Tigers third consecutive bowl appearance and Missouri last had three-straight bowl bids from 2009-11 - part of seven-straight postseason games between 2006-11.
- Missouri announced a pair of contract extensions recently, adding two years to Head Coach Eliah Drinkwitz and three to Defensive Coordinator Blake Baker. Drinkwitz is locked up through the 2027 season while Baker is inked through 2025.
- Four of Missouri's five SEC losses are by seven points or less and a combined 18 points, excluding Tennessee.
- WR Luther Burden III and OL Armand Membou both have earned starts as true freshmen this season.
- They're the first true freshman players to earn starts for Missouri since Evan Boehm (2012).
- WR Barrett Banister has hauled in 27+ receptions in three-straight seasons and is one of three MU players with a reception in five seasons, joining Lamont Downer (1974-78) and George Shorthose (1980-84).
- Against ACU, Banister surpassed 100 career grabs, the 25th Tiger to hit the milestone.
- QB Brady Cook had 106 yards rushing and 217 yards passing at Tennessee - the first Tiger to hit that mark since James Franklin vs. Oklahoma in 2011 (103 r, 291 p).

- Cook set career bests for carries (16), yards (106) and longest rush (40). He also went over 2,000 yards passing for the season.
- Chase Daniel accomplished the feat in 2008 against Kansas (103 r, 288 p) and Brad Smith did it five times.
- Cook's 106 yards on the ground are the most by a Missouri quarterback since Nov. 2, 2013 when Maty Mauk racked up 114 yards against Tennessee, which was also the last time a Missouri quarterback broke triple digits in rushing yards.

SERIES INFO

- This is the first meeting between the two schools.
- Wake Forest is 2-0 against SEC schools under Dave Clawson.
 - Wake Forest defeated Vanderbilt, 45-25, on the road earlier this season.
 - The other was a 55-52 shootout victory against Texas A&M in the 2017 Belk Bowl.

CROSSING PATHS

- Missouri has four players from North Carolina on its roster.
 - Ty'Ron Hopper, LB, Shelby
 - Xavier Simmons, LB, Greensboro
 - Vic Garrido, LB, Huntersville
 - Dameon Wilson, LB, Grover

NOTING THE DEACS

KICKING IT OFF

- With their win against Boston College, the Demon Deacons have now extended the conference's second-longest bowl streak to seven-consecutive seasons. This is also the 12th longest streak in the country.
- On Oct. 23 when Associated Press Top 25 Poll came out, the Deacons were ranked inside the top 15 for the eighth time in the past calendar year. Prior to that run, Wake Forest had only been ranked that high just three times since 1950. The Deacs latest top 15-ranking came after their third-straight win over Florida State. That victory was our first in Tallahassee since 2008 and was Wake Forest's sixth win over a ranked opponent in the last seven years.
- Additionally the Demon Deacons were ranked in 22-consecutive polls dating back to last season and ending on Nov. 6, 2022. It was tied for the sixth-longest streak in the country and more than doubling the previous program record of eight-consecutive weeks.
- Since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs are tied for the second-most wins in the ACC not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season. Additionally over the last five years, the Deacs have recorded the fourth-most wins in a single five-year period.
- Under Dave Clawson, Wake Forest has set a new standard of success that includes qualifying for its program record seventh-straight bowl game. He also owns the school record with four bowl victories.
- Additionally, his four bowl wins are tied for the seventh-most Bowl/CFP victories in ACC history and with one more he would move into the top five in league history.
- The four Bowl/CFP Victories are also tied for the second most among active ACC coaches.
- The Deacs have also set a new standard for success in the win column with a record of 18-8 over the last two seasons. The 18 wins in a two-year period are the second most in school history and three away from the program record of 21 set in 2006 & 2007. Additionally, Wake Forest's 18-8 record is tied for the 10th-best mark in all of Power-5 in the last two seasons:

Wins in Last Two Seasons as of Dec. 4 (Power-5)

- Georgia (27-1)
- Michigan (25-2)
- Alabama (23-4)
- Ohio State (22-3)

RECORD BREAKING OFFENSES

- From 2017-22, Wake Forest has produced the five highest scoring seasons in school history with each club scoring better. With Nick Sciba's third quarter field goal against Clemson last season, the Deacs broke its all-time scoring record for a single season with 474 combined points in 11 games, besting the previous record of 459 points set in 2017.
- The Demon Deacons finished the season with 574 points, becoming the first Wake Forest team to cross over the 500-point mark in school history while also setting the school record with 41.0 points per game.
- Wake Forest became just the 20th ACC team in the college football modern era (Post-WWII) to cross over the milestone of 500 points scored in a single season. The Deacs finished seventh in ACC scoring history:

ACC Single-Season Scoring

- 723 - Florida State (2013)
- 664 - Clemson (2018)
- 659 - Clemson (2019)
- 588 - Clemson (2016)
- 580 - Pitt (2021)
- 577 - Clemson (2015)
- 574 - Wake Forest (2021)

- STARTING OFF RIGHT: After scoring 44 points in Week 1 vs. VMI, 45 points in Week 2 at Vanderbilt, 37 points in Week 3 vs. Liberty, 45 points in Week 4 vs. Clemson, 31 points in Week 5 at Florida State, 45 points in Week 6 vs. Army, 43 points in Week 8 vs. Boston College, 21 points in Week 9 vs. Louisville, 21 points in week 10 vs. NC State, 34 points in week 11 vs. North Carolina, 45 points in week 12 vs. Syracuse and 31 points in week 13 vs. Duke, Wake Forest's 442 total points is near the pace of the single season scoring record set last season (574).

Scoring through 12 Games

2021: 515 Points

2022: 442 Points

- Wake Forest's 1,340 points scored during the 2020-22 period is the highest-scoring three-year period in Deacon history.

- Additionally, Wake Forest has scored 1,016 points over the last two seasons combined and their scoring average of 39.1 points per game ranks fifth during that time. The Deacs are the only ACC school with 1,000 points and lead the ACC in points per game this season:

Team	GP	TP	PPG
1 Ohio State	25	1,128	45.1
2 Georgia	28	1,088	38.9
3 Alabama	27	1,087	40.3

8 UTSA	27	1,019	37.7
9 Wake Forest	26	1,016	39.1

Elite Passing Offense

- A key to the Deacs scoring success has been the numbers that they have put up through the air in the last two seasons. Wake Forest is one of six schools to throw for more than 8,000 yards in that time and nearly 600 yards more than any other ACC team:

Teams	GP	Passing Yds
1 WKU	27	10,479
2 Miss. State	25	8,690
3 Ohio State	25	8,482
4 Alabama	27	8,412
5 Purdue	26	8,354
6 Wake Forest	26	8,078

- Additionally, the Demon Deacons have found the endzone through the air 18 more times than any other ACC team since the start of the 2021 season and their 79 passing touchdowns are the fourth most in the country:

Teams	GP	Passing TDs
1 WKU	27	101
2 Ohio State	25	84
3 Alabama	27	80
4 Wake Forest	26	79
5 SMU	24	73

- The 40 passing touchdowns as a team this season are the most in the country and has helped propel the Demon Deacons to the highest-scoring offense in the ACC:

Season	Total Points	Points per game

* Wake Forest program record

- Since the start of the 2017 season, Wake Forest's 182 touchdown passes are the most of any school in the ACC and that total ranks tied for seventh nationally during that span. Additionally during that span, the Deacs 329 total touchdowns are the second-most in the ACC behind Clemson and rank 12th nationally.

WINNINGEST PROGRAM IN NORTH CAROLINA

- Since the turn of the century, the Demon Deacons boast a record of 32-24 against UNC, NC State and Duke. In addition, during that time, Wake Forest is 46-24 against all in-state opponents. The Deacs lead the Big Four in winning percentage against each other during that period.
- Since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs are tied for the second-most wins in the ACC not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season:
 - Clemson -- 73
 - Wake Forest -- 48
 - Pitt- 45
 - NC State- 45
 - Miami- 43
- Additionally over the last five years, the Deacs have recorded the second-most wins in a single five-year period:
 - 38 (2017-21)
 - 36 (2004-08 & 2006-10)
 - 36 (2018-22)

THE ONLY

- Wake Forest is the only FBS program with a 990 APR, 90-plus graduation rate and seven or more bowl games under their current head coach.
- The football program was one of seven athletic programs on campus to have a 990 APR or higher in the latest report.
- The program also was a Public Recognition Award recipient as one of the top-10 percent in FBS football.

LIMITING PENALTIES

- Another key part of the Demon Deacons success during the seven-year bowl eligible streak has been the fact that they have had a low number of penalties over those seven years.
 - This season is no different as Wake Forest ranks in the top 25 nationally in fewest penalties, fewest penalties per game and penalty yards per game. The Deacs lead the ACC in all three categories and ranks in the top five in the Power-5 in each category:
- | Team | Penalties | Pen. Yds | Yds/G |

MAN IN THE MIDDLE

- Ryan Smenda Jr. has had his best season as a Demon Deacon, recording 106.0 tackles in just 11 games. His 344 career tackles are the most by a Demon Deacon since the turn of the century and is the 14th most in the ACC since 2005.
- Smenda's 9.6 tackles per game rank 18th in the country entering bowl season and seventh in the Power-5.

Wake Forest Top-5 Tackles since 2000

1. Ryan Smenda (2018-Pres)	344
2. Aaron Curry (2005-08)	332
3. Ryan Janvion (2013-16)	328

5. Jon Abbate (2004-06)	297
6. Marquel Lee (2013-16)	291

JD FINISHES SEASON STRONG

- Jasheen Davis has posted a breakout season in 2022, leading the Demon Deacon defense with new career highs in tackles-for-loss (14.0) and sacks (7.0) to go along with 33.0 defensive stops.

- Davis' 14.0 tackles-for-loss are tied for fifth in the ACC, while Davis sits tied for seventh in sacks. His 14.0 tackles for loss ranks just outside of the top 10 in program history for a single season and is fifth in the Clawson era:

Tackles for Loss Since 2014

1 Marquel Lee (2016)	20.0
2 Boogie Basham (2019)	18.0
3 Duke Ejiofor (2016)	17.0
4 Duke Ejiofor (2017)	16.5
5 Rondell Bothroyd (2021)	16.5
6 Jasheen Davis (2022)	14.0

- Davis recorded at least 1.0 tackles-for-loss in the final eight games.

- Over the final four games, Davis collected 8.0 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks.

- In Wake Forest's ACC win against Syracuse, Davis notched a career-high 3.0 tackles-for-loss. Against nationally-ranked North Carolina, Davis tallied a career-high two sacks.

NEARLY PERFECT

- Through 12 games in his career after taking over for NCAA record holder, Nick Sciba, Matthew Dennis has been nearly perfect. Dennis has started the season 12-for-14 on field goal attempts. He ranks in the top 25 in field goal percentage. Additionally, he is 53-for-53 in extra point attempts.

- As a unit, the Demon Deacons have made 267 consecutive extra points or five consecutive years. The Deacs last missed an extra point over five years ago on Nov. 18, 2017 against NC State.
- Additionally, Dennis ranks among the top 70 nationally in multiple categories:

COMING FOR ALL THE RECORDS

- Redshirt junior quarterback Sam Hartman who first started for the Demon Deacons is coming off his best season yet and is on pace to hold nearly every passing record in program history. He went into the 2022 season with 9,266 career passing yards, ranking second in program history. Already held the program record with 72 career touchdown passes, he also ranked in the top-five in program history in career completions, attempts, completion percentage and passing efficiency.
- According to PFF, the Charlotte, N.C. native was the highest rated returning quarterback in the ACC with a 91.8 rating last season. Additionally, he excelled at throwing the deep ball, totaling 1,613 deep passing yards which trailed just Joe Burrow (1,711 - 2019) since 2018. Hartman's 24 30-plus yard completions trailed just Trace McSorley (25 - 2016) since 2016 and 14 of those completions went for touchdowns, the most by any FBS quarterback in 2021.
- Hartman tossed three touchdowns on at Duke with 347 passing yards, building on his ACC record with his 21st 300-yard passing game in his career. He moved closer to the top of the ACC career passing yardage list, and became the 30th player in NCAA history to reach 12,500 yards for his career and ranks second among active players:

ACC Career Passing Yardage List

1. Philip Rivers, NC State (2000-03)	13,484
2. Sam Hartman, Wake Forest (2018-Pres.)	12,687
3. Kenny Pickett, Pitt (2017-21)	12,303
4. Tajh Boyd, Clemson (2010-13)	11,904

LAST FIVE GAMES ON DEC. 23

This marks the first time in program history the Demon Deacons will play on December 23.

DID YOU KNOW: Wake Forest has won its last two games against SEC opponents, defeating Vanderbilt, 45-25, earlier this season and Texas A&M in the 2017 Belk Bowl, 55-52.

WF

Following the six-yard rushing touchdown by Justice Ellison in the first quarter on Saturday, the Demon Deacons have now produced a rushing score in 26 of their last 27 games dating back to Dec. 12, 2020 at Louisville. The only game during this run without a rushing score was in Week 4 vs. Clemson.

NOTING THE DEACS

- Additionally with Louisville's Malik Cunningham having his streak of 30 consecutive games with a TD responsible for coming to an end in Week 1 at Syracuse and Dillon Gabriel of Oklahoma's streak coming to an end in Week 5, Hartman's streak of 33 games now ranks first in FBS.
- Hartman also continues to move up the Wake Forest wins chart as a starting quarterback, picking up his 26th career victory with his win over Syracuse on Senior Day.

Wake Forest QB Wins

1. Riley Skinner (2006-09), 31
 2. Sam Hartman (2018-pres.), 26
 3. John Wolford (2014-17), 20
 4. Mike Elkins (1985-88), 18
 5. Tanner Price (2010-13), 17
- Against Clemson in Week Four, Hartman tossed a Demon Deacons record six touchdowns on Saturday with 337 passing yards. The six TD passes marked the most against the Clemson Tigers since current Chicago Bears quarterback Justin Fields threw six of his own on Jan. 1, 2021 in the Sugar Bowl. This also tied the ACC record as he is the 10th player in conference history to reach the milestone. He also is the only quarterback in program history to throw for five or more TDs in multiple games:
 - 6. Sam Hartman (vs Clemson, Sept. 24, 2022)
 - 5. Sam Hartman (vs Boston College, Oct. 22, 2022)
 - 5. Sam Hartman (at North Carolina, Nov. 6, 2021)
 - 5. Sam Hartman (at Army, Oct. 23, 2021)
 - 5. John Wolford (vs. Louisville, Oct. 28, 2017)
 - 5. Riley Skinner (at Duke, Nov. 28, 2009)
 - 5. Jamie Newman (vs. Elon, Sept. 21, 2019)

- Additionally, he is the one of four Power-5 quarterbacks to toss six or more TDs in a single game this season and one of just 11 in FBS to reach six touchdowns passes in a game this year.
- Despite missing the opener, Sam Hartman ranks among the best quarterbacks across the nation in nearly every passing category:

Category	Rank	Total
Points Responsible For/Game	5th	19.8
Passing TDs	5th	35
Passing Yd/Game	7th	311.0
Total Offense	10th	321.4
Passing Efficiency	12th	160.2
Yards/Completion	13th	13.85
Yards/Attempt	15th	8.7

- Last season, Hartman rose into the ranks in ACC single season history as the Charlotte, N.C. native finished fifth on the all-time list and becoming just the 10th 4,000-yard passer in conference history:

ALL-TIME ACC SEASON PASSING YARDS

1. Deshaun Watson (2016) 4,593 Clemson
2. Matt Ryan (2007) 4,507 Boston College
3. Philip Rivers (2003) 4,491 NC State

8. Kenny Pickett (2021) 4,066 Pitt
9. Jameis Winston (2013) 4,057 Florida State
10. Mike Glennon (2012) 4,031 NC State

- With his three touchdown passes in the Gator Bowl, Hartman finished the season responsible for 50 touchdowns in 2021. Only two other players in ACC history have been responsible for more touchdowns than Hartman:
 - Lamar Jackson (51 TDs - 2016)
 - Deshaun Watson (50 TDs - 2016)
 - Sam Hartman (50 TDs - 2021)
- In 2020, Wake Forest was only FBS team that played more than eight games to have five or less interceptions on the season and one of just two ACC teams to do so. Hartman had his program-record streak of 258 consecutive passes without an interception come to an end at Louisville in the final regular season game of the year. His streak ranked fifth in ACC history at the time.
- For the third consecutive season, Hartman was named to the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Watch List while also being named to the Walter Camp, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award.
- Hartman was named a semifinalist for the Jason Witten Collegiate Man of the Year on Wednesday, Nov. 16. Additionally, he was named a finalist for the Manning Award and a semifinalist for the Davey O'Brien Award.
- By the end of his career, Hartman could end up rewriting the Wake Forest record books. He currently ranks in the top-5 in program history in...

Calvin Johnson	28 (2004-06; Georgia Tech)
A.T. Perry	28 (2018-22; Wake Forest)

- Perry has also been elite nationally in the last two seasons scoring touchdowns, finding the endzone 26 times which is tied for second among all FBS wideouts in that period:

1. Nathaniel Dell (Houston)	27
T2. A.T. Perry (Wake Forest)	26
T2. Zakhari Franklin (UTSA)	26
■ Additionally, Perry has been one of the most explosive receivers in program history. He still ranks in the top five in Wake Forest history with 15.9 yards per catch over the course of his career.
Career Avg. Per Reception (min. 75 Rec.)
1. Donavan Greene (2019-Pres.)	18.5 (78/1,446)

Jayden Reed	WR	Mich St	31

- Perry caught 10 passes for 119 yards for a career-high tying three touchdowns against Syracuse. This marked the fourth 100-yard performance of the season as well as the 11th 100-yard performance of his career and the fourth multi-touchdown game of his career.

- A.T. Perry caught a career-high 12 passes for a career-high 159 yards at NC State, marking the third 100-yard receiving game of the season as well as the 10th of his career.

- This helped Perry become just the fifth Demon Deacon in program history to accomplish this feat over the course of his career.

- His 160 career receptions is eighth in program history. Additionally, he trails just Cam Serine in receptions in the Dave Clawson era.

WINNING THE TURNOVER BATTLE

- One of the points of emphasis for the Wake Forest football team is winning the turnover battle. They have been one of the best teams in the country in that category since the start of the 2016 season.
- In five of the last seven seasons, the Demon Deacons have finished inside of the top 25 in turnover margin while placing in the top three of ACC in each of those seasons.
- Over the past seven seasons, Wake Forest has a combined +37 turnover margin. Only 2018 saw the Deacs finish with more turnovers lost than gained:

Season	TO Gained	TO Lost	TO Margin
2022	15	18	-3
2021	29	20	+9
2020	17	7	+10
2019	25	17	+8
2018	16	19	-3*
2017	21	13	+8
2016	27	19	+8

DEACS IN BOWL GAMES

Seven of the Deacs 17 bowl games in program history have come in the last seven years, the second-longest active streak in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Wake Forest holds a 9-6 all-time mark including 3-2 under Dave Clawson.

30

Five Wake Forest coaches on the staff have more than 30 years of college coaching experience.

Both Warren Ruggiero and John Hunter followed Dave Clawson to Wake Forest after working under him at Bowling Green.

22

Dave Clawson enters his 22nd season as a head coach. He started at Fordham in 1999.

250

The Wake Forest assistant coaches have a combined 250 years of coaching at the college level with seven coaches with 20-plus seasons of experience.

NOTING THE DEACS

*Only season in Wake Forest history where the Deacs reached a bowl game with a negative turnover margin.

- Winning the turnover battle has been a key to victory for the Demon Deacons since Dave Clawson arrived on campus ahead of the 2014 season:

Turnover Margin	Record When
Even	12-11
+1 or better	39-10
+2 or better	23-3
+3 or better	11-0

TURNING OVER THE OPPOSITION

- In the 2019 season, the Demon Deacons finished the year with 14 interceptions by 10 different players. In nine games in 2020, Wake Forest nearly matched that mark as nine different players have accounted for the Deacs' 13 total interceptions. At the end of the 2020 FBS season, Wake Forest is the one of just six teams in the country to have three or more interceptions returned for touchdowns.
- The Deacs got off to a fast start in 2021, forcing six turnovers in their week three victory over Florida State (three fumbles and three interceptions), the most in the Dave Clawson era. The previous high was five at Indiana on Sept. 24, 2016. Additionally, the Deacs again ranked among the best in forced turnovers:

2021 FBS Leaders in Turnover Margin

1. Middle Tennessee	32 (15 Fum Rec, 17 INTs)
2. Western Kentucky	31 (10 Fum Rec, 21 INTs)
3. Cincinnati	30 (11 Fum Rec, 19 INTs)
3. Iowa	30 (5 Fum Rec, 25 INTs)
5. Wake Forest	29 (14 Fum Rec, 15 INTs)

- AMONG THE NATION'S BEST: In addition to turning the ball over the Demon Deacon defense also saw themselves inside of the top-25 in a number of other categories in 2021: Passes intercepted (14th, 15), Tackle for Loss (17th, 7.0) Turnover Margin (17th, +9), Fumble Recovered (2nd, 14) and 4th Down Conversion Defense (14th, 37.5).
- Wake Forest saw their streak of 18-straight games with a forced turnover come to an end against No. 5 Clemson, and amid its three-game losing skid WF now has a -3 turnover margin on the season, heading into bowl season.
- Additionally, the Deacons have forced a turnover in 40 of their last 44 games dating back to Sept. 28, 2019. The only games without one vs. UNC (11/12/19), at NC State (11/5/22), vs. Clemson (9/24/22), at Louisville (12/12/20).

BEEF BOYS RETURN UP FRONT

- Wake Forest went into the season with a veteran bunch of offensive linemen led by starters Je'Vionte Nash, DeVonte Gordon, Sean Maginn, Loic Nya and Michael Jurgens all returning up front.

■ The Demon Deacons are one of just eight FBS teams to return five starters along the offensive line.

■ The starting Beef Boy unit has combined to play in 232 games in their career the most in FBS by six combined games:

Wake Forest	232
Pitt	226
Georgia State	216
NC State	213
Utah State	205

■ In the ACC, Wake Forest is also one of the most veteran units returning from a season ago with Green Bay Packer fourth-round selection Zach Tom as the only absentee from last season's starting unit:

1 Pitt - 98.6%
2 Louisville - 83.5
3 Wake Forest - 82.9
4 Syracuse - 82
5 NC State - 80.5

NFL CONTRACTS SINCE 2017

- Since the 2017 NFL draft, 36 Demon Deacons have been drafted or signed NFL contracts including a program-high nine players in the 2020 and 2022 draft cycle.

- Only Head Coach in NCAA History to win 10-games in a single season at four different Division I institutions
- 2005 I-AA.org National Coach of the Year
- 2002 Schutt Sports/American Football I-AA Coach of the Year

When Dave Clawson was named Wake Forest University's 32nd head football coach on Dec. 10, 2013, he set out to build the top program in North Carolina and compete for championships.

After reaching a program record sixth-straight bowl game in 2021 while also capturing the 2021 ACC Atlantic title and winning the Deacs' eighth Big 4 Championship in 2019, Clawson is realizing the vision of what he set out to create.

Clawson has also engineered an offense that has rewritten the record books at Wake Forest. The Deacons have set over 350 school records including marks for points scored, points per game, total offensive yards, first downs and passing yards over the past four seasons. Clawson owns the school record for bowl victories, has climbed to the third-most wins in school history, and has led Wake Forest to a five-year period (2017-21) of success that had been unmatched in school history, winning 38 games over that period.

Meanwhile, the long-awaited Sutton Sports Performance Center opened in fall 2019 and gave Wake football a state-of-the-art facility that features a world-class strength and conditioning complex to go with 16,000 square feet of space for coaches' offices, recruiting space and team meeting areas as well as a specialized nutrition center. More is on the way with the opening of the McCreary Football Complex in late 2022.

Clawson joined the Demon Deacons after five seasons as the head coach at Bowling Green State University where he led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois.

In his 22 years as a head coach, Clawson has delivered a conference championship at each of his first three stops. Prior to the 2013 MAC title, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

He has also earned numerous Coach of the Year awards. He was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award in just his second year in the league. The 2007 CAA Coach of the Year award marked his fourth conference Coach of the Year honor in his first nine years as a head coach.

In 2002, Clawson was the Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

While raking in conference championships and coaching awards, Clawson has compiled an impressive 141 wins in his head coaching career, 15th most amongst active FBS head coaches.

DEACS RECORDS UNDER DAVE CLAWSON SINCE 2017

2019	Louisville	40*

PROVEN WINNER

Throughout his coaching career, Dave Clawson has shown to be one of the best program builders in the game. He has helped lift the Demon Deacon program to new heights with four consecutive bowl appearances for the first time in the program's history. But he is just doing what he has always done.

At each of his previous three stops, he has won at least one conference title and is the only active FBS head coach to win a Division I conference championship in four different conferences. This included two conference titles during his time at Richmond.

ASSISTANT COACHING STAFF

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/WRS
KEVIN HIGGINS

Wake Forest's 89 touchdown receptions during the 2018 and 2019 seasons are the most of any ACC team during that time.

During the 2019 season, Sage Surratt and Kendall Hinton became the first duo in school history to each have over 1,000 yards receiving in the same season.

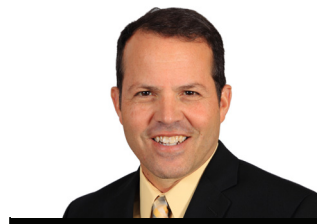

Compiled a 99-83-1 record in 16 years as a head coach.

ASST HC FOR DEFENSE/DL DAVE COHEN

Each season since he has arrived on campus at least one defensive lineman has earned All-ACC honors.

Over the last four seasons, the Deacons have racked up 136 sacks, the most sacks of any five-year period in school history.

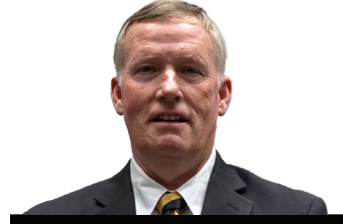

Carlos "Boogie" Basham Jr. recorded 11 sacks in 2019, the second-most in a season by a Wake Forest player.

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QBS
WARREN RUGGIERO

Coordinated a Demon Deacon offense that has set or tied over 300 offensive records since the start of 2017.

The last four seasons have produced the three highest scoring seasons in school history with the Deacs setting a program record in 2020 with 36.0 points per game.

In 2019, Wake Forest finished 15th in the nation in total offense, the highest-finish every for a Demon Deacon team.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
BRAD LAMBERT

Lambert served eight seasons (2011-18) as the head coach at Charlotte, starting the program from scratch.

Wake Forest had five winning seasons in his 10 years in Winston-Salem (2001-10), including an 11-3 campaign in 2006 that led to an ACC championship.

In 2008, Aaron Curry won the Butkus Award, presented annually to the nation's top linebacker.

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/TES
WAYNE LINEBURG

Tutored kicker Nick Sciba who set the NCAA record by converting 34 consecutive field goal tries over the 2018 and 2019 seasons and is the all-time leading scorer in program history.

Oversees the development of tight end Cam Serigne who earned first team All-ACC honors and set the conference record for receptions, receiving yards and touchdown catches by a tight end in a career.

SAFETIES
JAMES ADAMS

Adams was with Wake Forest's new defensive coordinator Brad Lambert at Charlotte for eight seasons (2011-18).

During his lone season with the Midshipmen as the cornerbacks coach, Navy finished with the top passing defense in the American Athletic Conference allowing just 180.8 yards per game.

Adams was a two-time letterman at linebacker for Wake Forest.

RUNNING BACKS
JOHN HUNTER

Put together three straight seasons of rushing for over 2,000 yards from 2017-19, the first time that has happened since 1996.

Wake has rushed for 83 touchdowns over the last four years, the most-productive three-year stretch since 2003.

Tutored Matt Colburn II and Cade Carney who finished sixth and seventh in school history in career rushing yards.

THEY'RE BACK

Five of the 10 assistant coaches on the current Wake Forest football coaching staff have been in Winston-Salem since head coach Dave Clawson arrived ahead of the 2014 season.

Defensive Coordinator Brad Lambert, Safeties Coach James Adams and linebackers coach Glenn Spencer all enter their first season on staff. Adams has previously served under Lambert during three different stops at Wake Forest, Charlotte and Purdue while Spencer was on Lambert's staff in 2018 as the defensive coordinator.

During the 2004 season Coach Cohen and Coach Williams all served on the same staff at University of Delaware. A year prior, Cohen and Williams helped lead the Blue Hens to the 2003 FCS National Championship with a 40-0 victory over Colgate.

Before coming to Wake Forest at the start of Dave Clawson's tenure in 2014, Coach Hunter spent the previous five seasons working on Clawson's staff at Bowling Green. He served both as a recruiting coordinator and running backs coach during their tenure, helping guide the Falcons to a 2013 Mid-American Conference title.

OFFENSIVE LINE
NICK TABACCA

Placed four of its five offensive line starters on the All-ACC team following the 2019 season, the first time in school history.

Set the school record for passing yards in a season in 2019 while posting its lowest sacks allowed per pass attempt since 1998.

Six #BeefBoys have made it to the NFL including Zach Tom, Justin Herron and Phil Haynes who were drafted.

CORNERBACKS
PAUL WILLIAMS

Williams has a long history of training NFL talent over his 24-year coaching career. Currently, Williams has 11 players on active NFL rosters and has produced 14 NFL draft picks from six different schools including Ja'Sir Taylor in 2022.

Over his five seasons at Miami (FL), Williams helped develop eight future NFL players including 2016 first-round pick, Artie Burns. All eight are still currently on active rosters.

LINEBACKERS
GLENN SPENCER

Over three decades of college coaching experience including three years as a head coach and 10 years as a defensive coordinator.

Coached nine NFL Draft picks including 2014 First-Round Pick cornerback Justin Gilbert.

From 2010-2017 under Spencer, Oklahoma State ranked second nationally in turnovers forced with 224.

QUICK NOTES

- The Wake Forest assistant coaches have a combined 250 years of coaching at the college level with seven coaches with 20-plus seasons of experience.
- Coach Higgins, Coach Lambert, Coach Cohen, Coach Spencer and Coach Ruggiero all have head coaching experience at the college level.
- On top of his 37 years of college coaching experience, Coach Higgins was on the Detroit Lions coaching staff from 2001-04.
- Since the start of the 2017 season, Wake's 142 touchdown passes are the most of any school in the ACC and tied for the seventh most among all Power 5 teams. Additionally during that span, the Deacs 271 total touchdown passes are the second-most in the ACC.

PRO DEACS

12 PRODEACS LAND ON ROSTERS

- The 2022 NFL season begins on Thursday, September 8, with most of the teams kicking off Sunday, September 11. There are 12 Demon Deacons currently on an NFL roster preparing to make their mark next weekend.
- Defensive lineman Carlos "Boogie" Basham and the Buffalo Bills will visit John Wolford and the defending Super Bowl Champion Los Angeles Rams in the first game of the season. Basham is entering his second season with the Bills and is expected to play a huge role on the defensive line.
- Basham recorded a strip sack which resulted in a touchdown in the first preseason game against the Colts.

MAKING THE CUT

- 2022 NFL Draft picks Zach Tom (4th round) and Ja'Sir Taylor (6th round) are coming off productive preseasons and are looking to make an immediate impact for the Packers and Chargers respectively.
- Undrafted rookie linebackers Luke Masterson and Luiji Vilain also put in excellent work during camp and the preseason to earn a spot on the final 53-man roster.
- Masterson, who signed with the Raiders in May, finished second on the team in tackles with 21 during the three-game preseason. In week three of the preseason, he picked off Patriots starter Mac Jones and returned it 30 yards. Vilain, a Minnesota Viking, also recorded a week three interception. He picked off Broncos quarterback Brett Rypien following a tipped ball in the end zone. He also recovered a fumble the previous week.
- Third-year receiver Greg Dortch (Cardinals) had a very impressive showing in the preseason to earn a roster spot. Dortch finished tied for first on the team in receptions (14) and second on the team in yards (166).

EARNING RECOGNITION

- Safety Jesse Bates III has established himself as one of the best defensive backs in football. He helped lead his Bengals to the Super Bowl for the first time since 1988. He led the postseason with six pass deflections and two interceptions, including a pick in the big game.
- The team captain has tallied over 400 tackles and 10 interceptions over the last four seasons. He has started 67 of 69 possible games for Cincinnati since entering the league as a second-round draft pick in 2018.

RECORD NINE PLAYERS SIGNED WITH NFL TEAMS

- In addition to the two players taken in the 2022 draft, seven more players inked an NFL contract this past offseason, matching a program record.

- Wide receiver Jaquarii Roberson made his way onto America's Team, the Dallas Cowboys, as an undrafted free agent. The program record holder for yard-per-game in a single season (102.9 in 2020), followed up his record-setting year with a 1,000 yard, eight touchdown season in his final season as a Demon Deacon.
- Defensive stars Luiji Vilain and Luke Masterson signed contracts with the Minnesota Vikings and Las Vegas Raiders respectively. Masterson led the Demon Deacons in tackles in 2021 with 85 total stops. In his lone season with the program, Vilain led the team in sacks with nine.
- One of the most dominant kickers in NCAA history, Nick Sciba, signed with the Pittsburgh Steelers. Sciba owns multiple NCAA, ACC, and school records, including most consecutive made field goals with 34 and most accurate kicker in NCAA history at 89.9 percent.
- Safety Nasir Greer signed a contract with the Kansas City Chiefs.

DEMON DEACONS IN THE BIG GAME

- The 2021 NFL Super Bowl between the Cincinnati Bengals and the Los Angeles Rams consisted of two former Wake Forest players, one on each team.
- Jessie Bates III has established himself as a key piece of the Bengals defense over the last few seasons and played a huge role in getting his team to the Super Bowl for the first time since 1989.
- John Wolford spent the season backing up Matthew Stafford with the Los Angeles Rams. The Dallas native appeared in three games in the 2021 season.
- Wolford's Rams ended up defeating Bates' Bengals by a score of 23-20, but Bates made it difficult for the Los Angeles team with six tackles and an interception in the end zone late in the second quarter.

THE NFL DRAFT

The Deacs has a long and rich history of players being selected in the NFL Draft:

Wake Forest has had 140 players drafted in its history including one in each of the last six seasons.

Offensive tackle Zach Tom was drafted in the 4th round by the Green Bay Packers and cornerback Ja'Sir Taylor went in the 6th round to the Los Angeles Chargers in the 2022 edition of the draft.

Since Dave Clawson took over the program ahead of the 2014 season, 10 Wake Forest players have been taken in the NFL Draft including six in the past four drafts combined.

Under Clawson, the Deacs have had players drafted in the past six NFL Drafts.

After just one season playing under Coach Clawson, defensive back Kevin Johnson was taken with the 16th overall selection by the Houston Texans. He became the fifth Demon Deacon to be selected in the first round and the third since 2003. Linebacker Aaron Curry went fourth overall to Seattle in 2009, defensive lineman Calvin Pace 18th overall to Arizona in 2003, quarterback Norm Snead second overall to Washington in 1961 and running back Elmer Barbour 10th overall to the New York Giants in 1945.

STADIUM NOTES

A NEW NAME FOR THE DEACS' HOME

- Starting with the 2020 football season, BB&T Field will now be known as Truist Field at Wake Forest. The renaming comes as a result of the merger of SunTrust and BB&T to form Truist, now the sixth-largest U.S. financial institution.
- "Wake Forest University is proud of its affiliation with the people of Truist and grateful for their longtime support of Demon Deacon student-athletes." Director of Athletics John Currie said. "As Truist continues its climb as one of America's leading financial institutions, we are excited that the 21st century's best college football program in North Carolina will now call Truist Field its home."

NOTABLE UPDATES OVER THE YEARS

- 2005 - The facade along the sidelines and south endzone were re-faced with approximately 89,000 bricks, specifically created for this project by Pine Hall Brick Company
- 2006 - FieldTurf surface was installed
- 2007 - McCreary Tower, which was built at a cost of $48 million, houses luxury suites, club seats, boxes for the University President, home and visiting athletic directors and print and electronic media.
- 2011 - A state-of-the-art video board to the South end zone was put in. The board measures 42 feet in height and 90 feet in width. It contains over 1.5 million pixels and 3,780 square feet of active video area.

PROVIDING THE HOME EDGE

- Wake Forest is an astounding 20-4 at home since the start of the 2019 season. The Deacs won a program record 11-straight contests from Oct. 2, 2020 until Sept. 17, 2022. Wake Forest's perfect 6-0 mark in 2021 is the program's first undefeated home record since 1979 and it is just the third time that this feat has been accomplished since its 1970 ACC Championship team.

HISTORY

ABOUT TRUIST FIELD

After playing football in Groves Stadium since 1940, Wake Forest renamed its facility BB&T Field from 2007-19 season. Ahead of the 2020 season, it was renamed to Truist Field at Wake Forest.

Wake Forest began playing intercollegiate football in Groves Stadium in 1940 when the school, then located in Wake Forest, N.C., first dedicated a 20,000-seat facility by that same name on its original campus. When Wake opened its current facility in 1968, the school kept the Groves name.

The stadium was named in honor of Henry H. Groves, Sr., who passed away in 1985. It was his generous gift that made possible the construction of the original stadium, which would be the site of some of the finest moments in Wake Forest athletic history.

The Deacs played their final game in old Wake Forest in 1955 before the school moved to Winston-Salem. After several years of playing at Bowman Gray Stadium, the Deacs moved to Groves Stadium in 1968.

In 1957, the original Groves Stadium was sold to Wake Forest High School for the sum of $10 and became the home of high school football and other community events. It was later renamed Trentini Stadium, in memory of the late Tony Trentini, a Wake Forest football player and 1956 graduate, who later returned to serve as the high school team's coach.

SEPTEMBER 1 • TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. • ATTENDANCE - 26,013

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- The Wake Forest football team defeated VMI in front of the largest Opening Night student crowd ever (3,752 students) on Thursday night inside Truist Field. With the 44-10 win, the Demon Deacons have won 10-straight games inside Truist Field, marking the longest home winning streak in program history.

The streak dates back to the win over Campbell on Oct. 2, 2020 and is tied for the seventh-longest streak among Power 5 schools. Overall, Wake Forest (1-0) is now 16-2 at home since 2019.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Mitch Griffis tossed three touchdowns and threw for 288 yards in his first-career start. Wake Forest was paced on the ground by redshirt junior running back Christian Turner as he had a career-high tying two touchdowns and a personal-best 100 yards.

Through the air, the Deacs were led by Paul Hornung Award Watch List honoree Taylor Morin with five receptions for 74 yards and an impressive diving touchdown in the corner of the endzone.

With Jahmal Banks' 14-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter, Wake Forest ran its point total to 44, which marked the Demon Deacons third-highest Opening Night tally since the turn of the century.

Defensively, 21 players tallied multiple tackles and redshirt senior defensive back Isaiah Wingfield had a career-day with four tackles and two pass breakups.

Over the last decade, Wake Forest is 9-3 in season openers including a 7-2 record in head coach Dave Clawson's tenure. Additionally, The Deacs hold a mark of 8-1 in home openers in the Clawson era.

SEPTEMBER 10 • FIRSTBANK STADIUM • NASHVILLE, T.N. • ATTENDANCE - 24,431

NASHVILLE -- Wake Forest's veterans led the Demon Deacons on Saturday as the 21st-ranked Wake Forest football team handed Southeastern Conference foe Vanderbilt its first loss of the season, 45-25. Wake Forest has now won six of its last seven road openers, with its lone loss coming during the COVID-2020 season.

The veterans on the defensive side of the ball set the tone on Saturday.

Redshirt senior defensive back Coby Davis opened the scoring for the Demon Deacons as he snared his second-career interception in the first quarter and returned it 31 yards for the score. Later in the opening frame, redshirt junior Jacorey Johns forced a fumble that junior Chelen Gaines recovered. Additionally, senior Ryan Smenda, Jr. led the Demon Deacons in tackles with seven and redshirt senior Kobie Turner had a fumble recovery as well off a Vandy miscue.

Offensively, Wake Forest was led by redshirt junior Sam Hartman as he tallied 300 yards, four passing touchdowns and zero interceptions in his season debut. Hartman's big-play target on Saturday was redshirt junior A.T. Perry as he hauled in five passes for 142 yards and one touchdown. Additionally, Wake Forest's two-time captain threw touchdown passes to four different players (Cameron Hite, Christian Turner, Taylor Morin) who are all redshirt sophomores or older.

With the Deacs now 2-0 to start the season, Wake Forest holds a record of 19-5 (.792) during the month of September since the start of the 2016 season. This includes eight of the nine seasons in the head coach Dave Clawson era with multiple wins in the month.

Additionally with Saturday's win over Vanderbilt, Coach Clawson remains undefeated against programs from the Southeastern Conference. Prior to Saturday's win, he led the Deacs past Texas A&M in the 2017 Belk Bowl.

The Deacs next return to Truist Field for Homecoming against Liberty on Saturday, Sept. 17 at 5 p.m. Tickets are available here for just $15 and Wake Forest recently announced that just 2,500 tickets were left.

SEPTEMBER 17 • TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. • ATTENDANCE - 32,891

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- The Wake Forest football team (3-0) secured a 37-36 Homecoming victory over Liberty on Saturday, Sept. 17 at Truist Field. The hard-fought win was witnessed by a crowd of 32,891 – the second-largest crowd in the head coach Dave Clawson era.

Additionally, Saturday's sellout marked Wake Forest's first in the month of September since 2006 when the Deacs hosted Syracuse (Sept. 2, 2006). Overall, this is just the third sellout in the month of September this century. The victory on Saturday marked the Deacs 11th-straight victory inside Truist Field, which is the longest home winning streak in program history.

Wake Forest earned its seventh-consecutive victory over a Virginia based opponent with the win and Coach Clawson holds a combined record of 9-1 against Virginia based programs during his tenure in Winston-Salem.

Offensively, the Demon Deacons were led by redshirt junior quarterback Sam Hartman as he finished 26-of-44 passing for 325 yards and three passing touchdowns. Two of his passing touchdowns went to sophomore Jamal Banks and one to redshirt junior Blake Whiteheart.

Hartman broke the Wake Forest all-time passing mark, eclipsing Riley Skinner (2006-09) with a five-yard pass to Ke'Shawn Williams in the third quarter against. Following Saturday, he has now thrown for 9,891 career passing yards, moving into the top 10 in ACC history. The Charlotte, N.C. native will look to become the 131st player in NCAA history and just the ninth passer in the history of the ACC to eclipse the 10,000-yard passing barrier next week against No. 4 Clemson.

Defensively, Wake Forest forced four turnovers including interceptions from redshirt senior Isaiah Wingfield and juniors Chelen Barnes and Chase Jones. Additionally, sophomore cornerback forced the game's decisive fumble that senior linebacker Ryan Smenda, Jr. recovered late in the fourth quarter. That aforementioned turnover led to Hartman's third touchdown pass of the game.

Since the start of the 2016 season, Wake Forest holds a record of 20-5 (.800) in September. This includes eight of the nine seasons in the Dave Clawson era with multiple wins in the month.

The Deacs return to Truist Field next weekend against No. 4 Clemson on Saturday, Sept. 24 at 12 p.m. Tickets are available here and there are limited tickets available so fans are encouraged to buy now. The contest will be broadcast on ABC.

Additionally, this will be the first WEAR BLACK SATURDAY game of the season as Demon Deacon fans are encouraged to dawn

SEPTEMBER 24 • TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. • ATTENDANCE - 32,903

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- Wake Forest University's fourth sellout crowd (32,903) in its last five games inside Truist Field witnessed a double-overtime classic between No. 16 Wake Forest and No. 5 Clemson. In front of a national television audience on ABC, the Demon Deacons battled the Tigers to the wire and eventually fell in double overtime, 51-45.

Wake Forest amassed 447 yards on offense and redshirt junior quarterback Sam Hartman tossed a Demon Deacons record six touchdowns. The six touchdown passes marked the most against the Clemson Tigers since current Chicago Bears quarterback Justin Fields threw six of his own on Jan. 1, 2021 in the Sugar Bowl. Additionally on Saturday, the Charlotte native finished 20-of-29 passing for 337 yards to go along with the half-dozen scores.

Sophomore wideout Jahmal Banks caught a pair of touchdown passes for the second-straight game and redshirt sophomore Donavon Greene reeled in his first touchdown pass since Nov. 14, 2020 against North Carolina. Also with his eight-yard touchdown catch in the first overtime, redshirt junior wide receiver A.T. Perry tallied his 19th-career scoring grab which ties him for seventh in program history and gives him sole possession of first place among wideouts in the Dave Clawson era.

Overall this season, Wake Forest's offense has been unstoppable and has now set a new scoring record with 171 points through four games. The 45 points that the Deacs tallied on Saturday marked their highest total against the Tigers since Nov. 1, 2003 (45 points) and the most points Clemson has allowed since Nov. 7, 2020 at Notre Dame.

Defensively, captains Ryan Smenda, Jr. and Chase Jones each recorded a game-high nine tackles, respectively. The Demon Deacons defense totaled six tackles-for-loss, six pass breakups, eight quarterback hurries and one forced fumble.

The Atlantic Coast Conference and ESPN will announce Wake Forest's kickoff time for its game at Florida State next week on Saturday night or Sunday morning. Fans are encouraged to stay tuned to GoDeacs.com and social media for an official announcement.

OCTOBER 1 • DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM • TALLAHASSEE, FL. • ATTENDANCE - 69,749

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- The No. 21-ranked Wake Forest football team captured its third-straight win over Florida State on Saturday afternoon, 31-21. The victory over the No. 22-ranked Seminoles (4-1, 2-1 ACC) marked the Demon Deacons (4-1, 1-1 ACC) third-straight season with a win over a ranked opponent.

Offensively, Wake Forest put on a show inside Doak Campbell Stadium on Saturday. Wake Forest outgained Florida State, highlighted by 171 yards on the ground. Additionally, the Deacs scored 28 unanswered points from the end of the first quarter until the halfway point of the third.

The 31 points scored in Tallahassee mark the fourth occasion in program history that the Deacs have posted 30-plus points on the Noles.

Individually, redshirt junior Sam Hartman moved into the top five in Atlantic Coast Conference history in career passing yardage. He currently has 10,462 yards and ranks fifth in league lore following today's game. Sophomore running back Justice Ellison recorded a career-high 114 yards on the ground today and redshirt junior wideout A.T. Perry hauled in his 20th career touchdown pass in the second quarter, which ranks tied for sixth in program history.

Defensively, the Deacs forced one turnover on Saturday while tallying six tackles for loss and just four successful third-down conversions. Over the course of the current three-game winning streak against FSU, the Wake Forest defense has forced nine turnovers.

Saturday's win marked the Demon Deacons 10th-straight victory during the month of October as Wake Forest went a perfect 4-0 during this month each of the last two years. Prior to 2020, Wake Forest had not gone undefeated in the month of October since 2007.

The Deacs return to Truist Field a week from today on Saturday, Oct. 8 at 7:30 p.m. vs. Army. The game is sold out, which marks the first time since 2011 that Wake Forest has had three-straight home sellouts.

OCTOBER 8 • TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. • ATTENDANCE - 32,524

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- Behind a stellar effort from the entire Wake Forest University defense, along with an efficient and effective output from its offense, the Demon Deacons (5-1) powered past Army (1-4) in front of a sellout crowd (32,524) at Truist Field on Saturday night, 45-10.

Saturday's attendance crowd marked the first time since 2011 that the Deacs have hosted three-straight sellouts. Additionally, the contest marked Wake Forest's fifth sellout in the six games dating back to last season. The passionate and faithful crowd witnessed the Demon Deacons 11th-straight victory during the month of October and their 12th-straight non-conference victory inside Truist Field.

The complete defensive performance was highlighted by redshirt freshman linebacker Dylan Hazen, as he totaled 12 tackles, three of which were solo, and grabbed his first-career interception at the end of the first half. Overall, the Demon Deacons defense held the Black Knights to 10 total points and one touchdown.

Additionally, Wake Forest held Army scoreless in the first half marking the first time this season that the Deacs held an opponent to zero points in the opening stanza.

Offensively, redshirt junior wideout A.T. Perry continued his stellar play against Army as over the last two matchups he has recorded 11 receptions for 264 yards and two touchdowns. On Saturday night, the Lake Worth, Fla. native caught five passes for 118 yards and had one score.

Wake Forest scored on seven occasions in the game. Saturday night marked the 10th time the Demon Deacons have held an opponent to seven points or less in head coach Dave Clawson era.

As the Demon Deacons enter the halfway point in their season and the bye week, Wake Forest has scored a program record 275 points this season and is 299 points from reaching its record-setting 574 point total from a season ago.

Overall in the series, Wake Forest is now 7-1 against the Black Knights in Winston-Salem and is now 18-3 inside Truist Field since the 2019 season.

Following an open date on Oct. 15, Wake Forest will host Boston College on Saturday, Oct. 22. While Wake Forest will learn the kickoff time for that contest on Monday, Oct. 10, fans can purchase tickets now. Additionally, click here to grab our super affordable four-pack ticket offer for $89, including a parking pass.

OCTOBER 22 • TRUIST FIELD • WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. • ATTENDANCE - 28,530

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. -- The Wake Forest football team overpowered Boston College on a beautiful Saturday afternoon inside Truist Field, 43-15. The victory marked the Demon Deacons (6-1, 2-1 ACC) sixth of the season, which extends the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-longest bowl streak to seven-consecutive seasons.

Under head coach Dave Clawson, Wake Forest has set a new standard of success as the seven-straight bowl berths extends a program record. Prior to this current streak, Wake Forest's previous record of consecutive bowl appearances was three seasons. Additionally, Clawson led the Deacs to four bowl wins during this run, which is tied for the seventh-most bowl/college playoff playoff victories in ACC history and with one more, he would move into the top five in league history.

With that, the four bowl/college football playoff victories are also tied for the second most among active ACC coaches.

Saturday's game against Boston College (2-5, 1-4 ACC) was highlighted by redshirt junior quarterback Sam Hartman 25-of-40 passes for 313 yards and five touchdowns through the air. Along with it being Hartman's 28th-straight game with a touchdown, which is the longest active streak in the nation, the Charlotte native is now third in ACC history in career touchdown passes (93). Hartman also rushed for his first touchdown of the season with a two-yard scamper in the third quarter.

Hartman's go-to targets on Saturday were redshirt sophomore wideout Taylor Morin and sophomore wide receiver Jahmal Banks as they each caught a pair of touchdown passes. While it was the first time in Morin's career he achieved this feat, Banks tallied a pair of touchdown catches against Liberty and Clemson earlier this season. Additionally, redshirt junior A.T. Perry had a 13-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter. The score marked his 22nd of his career moving him into a tie for second in program history with Todd Dixon.

Defensively, the Demon Deacons totaled nine tackles-for-loss on Saturday as a unit and redshirt junior defensive end Rondell Bothroyd made his presence known as he tallied two sacks. One of his havoc-wrecking plays was a sack-fumble that was recovered by Jasheen Davis in the second quarter.

Also, captain Ryan Smenta, Jr. inched up on the Wake Forest all-time tackles list on Saturday, recording five tackles against Boston College. His career total now sits at 293, which now ranks inside the top 20 in program history.

The Demon Deacons hit the road the next week at Louisville, in a matchup that is slated to kickoff at 3:30 p.m. on ACC Network.

OCTOBER 29 • CARDINAL STADIUM • LOUISVILLE, K.Y. • ATTENDANCE - 39,503

LOUISVILLE, Ky-- Wake Forest dropped a road game at Louisville, 48-21, Saturday afternoon at Cardinal Stadium.

In the 10th meeting between the teams, No. 10 Wake Forest (6-2, 2-2 ACC) was led by redshirt sophomore Donavon Greene as he tallied three catches for 75 yards. Additionally, redshirt junior tight end Blake Whiteheart recorded a career-high 52 receiving yards on four catches.

Individually, redshirt sophomore Jahmal Banks caught his team-leading eighth touchdown pass and sophomore Justice Ellison tallied a rushing score for the Deacs. Sophomore tight end Trey Boll reeled in a five-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter from redshirt freshman Mitch Griffis.

Louisville jumped out to a 13-0 lead in the first quarter on Saturday, but Wake Forest answered with the aforementioned Banks and Ellison scores to take the lead (14-13) going into halftime.

However, six third quarter turnovers led to 35 unanswered points for the Cardinals and created an insurmountable lead.

Wake Forest will look to bounce back next week at NC State.

NOVEMBER 5 • CARTER-FINLEY STADIUM • RALEIGH, N.C. • ATTENDANCE - 28,530

RALEIGH – Despite a hard-fought effort that included four sacks and eight tackles-for-loss, No. 19 Wake Forest fell on the road at No. 20 NC State on Saturday night, 30-21.

This historic rivalry has been played continuously since 1910, which is the longest continuous rivalry in the ACC and the second-longest in the FBS (Wisconsin-Minnesota have met every year since 1906). Additionally, Saturday marked only the third meeting when both teams came in nationally ranked. Last season, the No. 12 Demon Deacons downed the No. 16 Pack in Winston-Salem, while in 1992, No. 13 NC State beat No. 25 Wake Forest at Carter-Finley Stadium.

No. 19 Wake Forest (6-3, 2-3 ACC) was led on offense by redshirt junior quarterback Sam Hartman as he completed 29-of-48 passes for 397 yards and two touchdowns.

Redshirt junior A.T. Perry led Wake Forest's receiving corps with new career highs in catches (12) and yards (159). The performance marked Perry's third 100-yard receiving game of the season as well as the 10th of his career. The Lake Worth, Fla. native became just the fifth Demon Deacon in program history to accomplish this feat over the course of their career.

Hartman targeted redshirt sophomore wideout Taylor Morin on a 28-yard toss in the second quarter. The TD reception was his fifth of the season. Additionally, Christian Turner powered his way into the end zone early in the second quarter to get Wake Forest on the scoreboard.

Senior linebacker Ryan Smenda, Jr. led Wake Forest's defense with a career-high 16 tackles as the Orange Park, Fla. native has now racked up 313 tackles over the course of his career. He is the fourth Demon Deacon since the turn of the century to achieve this milestone, joining Aaron Curry (2005-08, 332 Tackles), Ryan Janvion (2013-16, 328 Tackles), Brandon Chubb (2012-15, 326 Tackles).

NC State (7-2, 3-2 ACC) earned just its second win over the Demon Deacons in the past six years.

Wake Forest will look to bounce back next week at home versus No. 17 North Carolina at 7:30 p.m. inside Truist Field. Fans can purchase tickets now

OCTOBER 29 • CARDINAL STADIUM • LOUISVILLE, K.Y. • ATTENDANCE - 39,503

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. – Wake Forest lost to No. 15 North Carolina on Saturday inside Truist Field, 36-34. Despite the loss, redshirt junior quarterback Sam Hartman tossed four touchdowns while completing 18-of-31 passes for 320 yards.

With his four touchdown passes, he is now at 100 for his career and just seven behind Tajh Boyd's (Clemson) Atlantic Coast Conference record of 107 career passing touchdowns.

In addition on offense, redshirt sophomore wideout Taylor Morin led the receiving corps with 106 yards, the second 100-yard performance of his career. Additionally, redshirt sophomore receiver Donavon Greene found the end zone twice, highlighted by a 60-yard score in the third quarter.

Redshirt junior wide receiver A.T. Perry reeled in a 32-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter, the 24th of his career. The Lake Worth, Fla. native is now just one away from tying Ricky Proehl's program record of 25 career touchdown catches. Defensively, senior linebacker Ryan Smenda, Jr. posted a career-high tying 16 tackles for the second-straight week, helping him surpass his career-high in single-season tackles with 91.

Last week, he became the fourth Demon Deacon since the turn of the century to achieve at least 300 tackles in his career and he has now totaled 329 over his five-year career. He trails Aaron Curry (2005-08, 332 Tackles) for the most tackles by a Wake Forest defender since 2001.

Also on defense, sophomore defensive end Jasheen Davis recorded four tackles, two sacks and 2.5 tackles-for-loss. Those two sacks came on one drive in the second quarter to halt a Carolina potential scoring drive. In front of a near-sellout crowd (31,346) and 4,024 Wake Forest students inside Truist Field on Saturday night, the Demon Deacons fell to 6-4 overall and 2-4 in the ACC with the loss. The Tar Heels improved to 9-1 overall and 6-0 in ACC play. Wake Forest returns to Truist Field next week for Senior Day on Saturday, Nov. 19 against Syracuse at 8 p.m. on ACC Network.

Fans are encouraged to stay tuned to GoDeacs.com and Wake Forest's social media channels for more information on next week's game, including specific student-athletes who will be participating in the pregame Senior Day ceremony. Several football student-athletes being honored next Saturday have remaining eligibility and following this season will assess the potential of returning for the 2023 season.

NOVEMBER 19 - TRUIST FIELD -WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 26,164

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C.— Behind standout performances from redshirt junior quarterback Sam Hartman and wideout A.T. Perry on Senior Night where Wake Forest honored 22 students prior to the game on Saturday and members of the Spirit of the Old Gold & Black (15), Spirit Squads (15) and student staffers (six) were recognized at halftime, Wake Forest defeated Syracuse, 45-35. The victory was the Deacs' (7-4, 3-4 ACC) third-straight over the Orange (6-5, 3-4 ACC). Additionally, Wake Forest has now won seven games in a season for just the 18th time in the 115-year history of the program with six of those seasons coming in the Clawson era.

Truist Field hosted a total of 210,350 fans across the Deacs seven home contests this fall and an average of 3,378 students per game. These record crowds, which included three sellouts this fall, have helped spur the Deacs to a stellar 20-4 record since 2019. Saturday's contest between Wake Forest and Syracuse featured a record-breaking performance from Perry, as now holds the school record for career touchdown receptions. The Lake Worth, Fla. native now has 27 touchdown receptions and he passed Wake Forest's 2022 ACC Legend, Ricky Proehl (25).

Additionally, Perry's three touchdown catches in the first half matched his career high set last year at Syracuse and marked the redshirt junior's fourth career multi-touchdown performance. Overall, Perry caught 10 passes for 119 yards, his fourth 100-yard performance of the season as well as the 11th 100-yard performance of his career.

Meanwhile, not to be outdone, Hartman's four-touchdown performance on Saturday night brought him within three touchdown passes of Clemson's Tajh Boyd's ACC record (107). Overall in his final home game at Truist Field, the Charlotte, N.C. native completed 30 passes for a total of 331 yards.

The Demon Deacons aforementioned senior class was led defensively by linebacker Ryan Smenda, Jr. The Orange Park, Fla. product had five tackles, including 0.5 for loss. He now has 334 career tackles, which is the most by any Demon Deacon since 2000 and ranks ninth in all-time Wake Forest history.

Also on defense, redshirt junior defensive back Brendon Harris returned an interception 36 yards for a touchdown. This marked the first INT of his career and the second pick-six for the Demon Deacons this season.

Wake Forest closes out the regular season on the road next week at Duke on Saturday, Nov. 26. The contest will kickoff at 3:30 p.m. and will be broadcast on either ESPN2 or ACC Network.

NOVEMBER 26 - WALLACE WADE STADIUM - DURHAM, N.C. - ATTENDANCE - 17,492

DURHAM, N.C. – Despite three touchdown passes from Sam Hartman, Wake Forest dropped a hard-fought contest at Duke on Saturday in both teams' regular season finale, 34-31.

This was the first time since 2017 that the Demon Deacons (7-5, 3-5 ACC) fell to Duke (8-4, 5-3 ACC). Saturday's contest marked the 102nd meeting in this historic rivalry and Wake Forest still holds a decisive 16-6 advantage in the series against the Blue Devils since the turn of the century.

Offensively, Hartman paced the Deacs as he went 26-of-42 passing for 347 yards and three touchdown passes. His go-to target on Saturday in Durham was A.T. Perry (eight catches for 87 yards and a touchdown), but Taylor Morin and Donovan Greene each caught a touchdown pass.

In his final regular season game of his career, Hartman's three touchdown passes Saturday afternoon moved him to the top of the Atlantic Coast Conference record book as the Charlotte, N.C. native is now tied with Clemson's Tajh Boyd for the most career touchdown passes (107) in league history.

Defensively, Jermal Martin, Jr. intercepted the first pass of his Wake Forest career in the fourth quarter. Additionally, in his final regular season game, linebacker Ryan Smenda, Jr. had a team-high 10 tackles, his sixth double-digit tackle performance . He now has 344 career tackles, which is the most by any Demon Deacon since 2000 and ranks ninth in all-time Wake Forest history.

Next up, the Demon Deacons will await to learn their bowl destination on Sunday, Dec. 4. Fans are encouraged to visit Wake Forest's Bowl Central webpage and order tickets for the games you want to attend.

If fans have previously ordered tickets and know their account login, head to My Account at GoDeacs.com/Tickets and click on "Ticket Applications" to reserve bowl tickets now.
