

LESSON	Essential Question: What does it mean to be a steward of the land and water?
1	How I became a steward - Slides and story, Wendy Scott
2	Activity #1 Read stories of people who made a difference in the world. Begin to define what it means to be a steward.
3	Activity #2 Where are you in the watershed? This Lake Alive p.461
4	Activity # 3 Invite speakers who work as stewards of the land and water for the students to interview
5	Activity # 4 Field trip to The ECHO center to participate in 2 programs: Stewardship Jenga Eco-Footprint
6	"Macro invertebrate Mayhem" activity from Project Wet pp. 322-323
7	"Bugworks" activity Day 1 - Collect bugs from stream on school grounds Day 2 - Observe bugs through hand lenses and identify characteristics of different ones
8	Field trip to The Missisquoi Wildlife Refuge
9	Stewardship project to be determined by the students
10	Celebration and Presentation of interviews stories/fieldtrips/project