

A&SP Rhumblines

Founded in 1944, the U.S. Naval Academy Athletic and Scholarship Programs, a division of the USNA Foundation, encourages and supports athletic excellence at the Naval Academy. The program is responsible for grants and awards that recognize superiority in athletics, and a comprehensive scholarship program to ensure the Academy has the best scholar-athletes.

Honor Our Fallen Heroes

The U.S. Naval Academy Alumni Association and Foundation (USNAAA&F) will honor all fallen heroes affiliated with the Naval Academy on 11 November. The names adorning the walls of Memorial Hall have made the ultimate sacrifice. Each year, USNAAA&F invites families who have lost a Naval Academy alum in an Operational Loss or who was Killed in Action back to the Academy to honor lost loved ones and family members who live on.

Service Academy Career Conference Best Network

Make plans now to attend the Dallas Service Academy Career Conference (SACC) on 9-10 November. This dynamic conference features the SACC Social (a networking happy hour), informative seminars, and a career fair to connect with employers, academic recruiters, and fellow alumni. Register now at Dallas SACC Registration.

Engage with myUSNA

Dubbed the central engagement platform of our U.S. Naval Academy alumni, myUSNA aims to bring our community closer than ever. The platform includes features like Chapter memberships, the latest USNAAA&F news, and event registrations. Classes are growing strong connections through reunion RSVP capabilities, Chapters continue to conduct registration for 400+ attendee tailgates, and SIGs are supporting alumni virtually and in person.

Founders Day and Navy Birthday Celebrations

Commemorating the U.S. Navy's 248th birthday, USNA Founders Day is steeped in historical importance, signifying 178 years since the Academy's establishment on 10 October 1845. This occasion pays homage to the institution's dedication to excellence, molding leaders, and protecting the nation. It serves as a reminder of the legacy we embrace and the duty we uphold, honoring the Navy's inception, and the enduring progress and impact of the Naval Academy.

2023 Fall Shell Dedications

Navy Crew dedicates four new shells in 2023: Carl Ullrich, W.E. "Skip" Sweetser '60, the Class of 1982, and the 1993 Lightweights. The Class of 1973 sponsored two new shells during their 50th reunion weekend including a new Empacher Heavyweight 8+ for their coach, Ullrich, who passed away last year. Ullrich was the Navy head rowing coach from 1968-1974. He later became the athletic director at West Point and the first executive director of the Patriot League.

Anchoring Memories: Fluegel's Open House Experience

More than 300 alumni gathered for the Fluegel Alumni Center open house and tailgate earlier this month. WNAV's live broadcast featured interviews with USNAAA&F Executive VP TJ Grady '96 and alumni CAPT Tony Then '97, USN. Navy Spirit and "Bill the Goat" enhanced the atmosphere, and a nostalgic march to Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium took place. The day was filled with memories, reunions, and spirited celebrations.
