"The Streak"

Pepperdine owns the West Coast Conference record for most consecutive league victories. The Waves recorded 38 straight triumphs against WCC foes with 32 coming in the regular season and six in the WCC Tournament contests. Pepperdine lost the first game of the 1991 conference slate but rolled to a 13-1 record, posted an unblemished 1992 league season (14-0) and rolled to its second straight WCC Tournament Championship. The Waves won their first five games of the 1993 campaign before suffering a home loss to San Francisco. The streak started Jan. 12, 1991 and ended Jan. 29, 1993.

Dons Make Historic Run

The University of San Francisco owns the West Coast Conference record for longest winning streak and is the second longest in NCAA Division I Men's Basketball history (UCLA). The winning streak started Dec. 17, 1954 with a 60-34 victory against Oregon State and would end exactly two calendar years later on Dec. 17, 1956 with a 62-33 loss at Illinois. Along the way the Dons captured back-to-back NCAA Championships (1955-56) and rolled to the 1957 NCAA Final Four. USF was the first team to make three straight Final Fours.

West Coast Conference Academic All-America Hall of Fame

John Stockton, Gonzaga

'84 joined Richard Balzhiser, Michigan '52, Susan Cassidy, Molloy College '86, Raymond Shafer, Allegheny '38* and Susan Walsh, North Carolina '84 as a 2002 inductee of the Capital One Academic All-America Hall of Fame. Stockton previously was named to the All-Time Academic All-America First Team, joining Danny Ainge (BYU), Bill Bradley (Princeton), Billy Cunningham (North Carolina) and Bill Walton (UCLA) on the prestigious list.

West Coast Conference Presidential Medal of Freedom

President Barack Obama awarded legendary Boston Celtics center Bill Russell with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the United States' highest civilian award. The Medal of Freedom recognizes men and women who have "made an especially meritorious contribution to (1), the security or national interests of the United States, or (2) world peace, or (3) cultural or other significant public or private endeavors."

The White House issued the following statement regarding Russell's honor.

Bill Russell is the former Boston Celtics' Captain who almost single-handedly redefined the game of basketball. Russell led the Celtics to a virtually unparalleled string of eleven championships in thirteen years and was named the NBA's Most Valuable Player five times. The first African American to coach in the NBA–indeed he was the first to coach a major sport at the professional level in the United States–Bill Russell is also an impassioned advocate of human rights. He marched with Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and has been a consistent advocate of equality.

Also awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by Obama in 2011 were President George H.W. Bush, Maya Angelou, Yo-Yo Ma and Stan Musial, among others.

The WCC produced at least one Academic All-American for six straight years (2012-17)
With two 2014-15 All-America selections, the West Coast Conference led the nation for the third straight year.

#WCCHOOPS IN BACK-TO-BACK NBA DRAFTS (2021 & 2022)

2021 NBA DRAFT
What a magical, historic night for #WCChoops Alumni. The West Coast Conference set a modern record for the most first and second round picks with four – two each in the first and second round – and Gonzaga continued to set program records Thursday night at the Barclays Center.

Two members of Gonzaga's 2020-21 NCAA National Runner-Up squad were selected in the top-15 picks – cementing yet another program first. The Zags were not done making history with a second rounder giving them three overall draftees for the first time in program and conference history.

2022 NBA DRAFT
The West Coast Conference made history at the 2022 NBA Draft at the Barclays Center, as the conference featured two players selected in the first 12 picks for the first time in conference history. The WCC also garnered three draft selections in the first 31 picks.

For the second straight year, the WCC featured a top-5 draft pick (Gonzaga's Chet Holmgren - Oklahoma City). Later in the first round, the Thunder picked Santa Clara's Jalen Williams at No. 12. The WCC boasts six top-5 picks all-time and Holmgren became the second top-2 pick in WCC history (Bill Russell, 2nd in 1956).

REMEMBERING HANK GATHERS
One of the greatest players in West Coast Conference history, Loyola Marymount's Hank Gathers became the conference's first two-time tournament MVP and is the leading scorer in the event's 19-year history. Led by Gathers, the Lions won back-to-back tournament titles in 1988 and 1989 and set a WCC record for most points in a tournament with 323 total points (107.7 ppg) in 1988.

Gathers' 1988 tournament was highlighted by an amazing 33-point, 18-rebound performance in LMU's first round win over Portland. In that same season, he became the second player in history to lead NCAA Division I in scoring and rebounding in the same season, averaging 32.7 points and 13.7 rebounds per game.

Gathers passed away tragically during the semifinal game of the 1990 WCC Tournament, which resulted in the tournament being suspended and Loyola Marymount being given the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

#WCCHOOPS FINAL FOUR ARCHIVES - 1955-57

1956-57 San Francisco Dons (22-7, 12-2 CBA)

Head Coach: Phil Woolpert
All-WCC (CBA) Team: Gene Brown, Mike Farmer (POY)
Top Scorer: Gene Brown (15.1) | Top Rebounder: Art Day (10.0)
San Francisco won its third straight NCAA Regional Championship with a 60-56 over California. The win over the Golden Bears vaulted the Dons to their third straight Final Four. USF thus became the first team in NCAA history to advance to three straight Final Fours. The Dons were upended by Kansas and Wilt Chamberlain 80-56 in the semifinals. The loss to the Jayhawks ended an 11 game NCAA tournament win streak for the Dons. USF defeated Michigan State 67-60 in the consolation game.

Did You know? The West NCAA Regional Championship game between USF and California came right down to the wire. The Bears trailed by just two points with six seconds remaining when Bears coach Pete Newell went to his bench for Joe Kapp, the great quarterback for California and later the Minnesota Vikings. Kapp's job was to pick out a 'receiver' from his position at the baseline and throw a long pass that would give the Bears a last second shot. But alas, USF's 6'8" 'defensive back' Mike Farmer intercepted Kapp's pass and was fouled as time ran out. He added two free throws and the Dons advanced to their third straight Final Four.

They Said It: "Playing on the 1957 team was in some ways more satisfying than the previous season when we won the championship. We suffered through a lot of injuries and a lot of sickness. The guys just hung together. I played on a lot of teams over the years, but I most remember the 1957 team," USF forward Mike Farmer.

San Francisco won back-to-back NCAA titles in 1955 & 1956

San Francisco was the first team to advance to three consecutive Final Fours

1955-56 San Francisco Dons (29-0, 14-0 CBA)

Head Coach: Phil Woolpert
All-WCC Team: K.C. Jones, Bill Russell (POY)
Top Scorer: Bill Russell (20.5) | Top Rebounder: Bill Russell (21.0)
Posted a 29-0 record on its way to a second consecutive NCAA Championship...defeated UCLA (72-61), Utah (92-77, SMU (86-68) and Iowa (83-71) to become just the third school to win back-to-back national championships...Bill Russell scored 26 points and grabbed 27 rebounds in the title game against Iowa, while Hal Perry, subbing for K.C. Jones, scored 14 points in the semifinals and championship game...led by the high-scoring Carl "Sugar" Cain, the Big Ten champion Hawkeyes raced to a 15-4 lead...just as he did a year before, head coach Phil Woolpert made a key defensive switch and assigned Gene Brown to guard Cain the rest of the way...Russell then took the game over on both ends of the floor and in one sequence, rejected three straight Hawkeye shots as the Dons carved out a 38-33 lead at halftime...USF extended its lead to 17 points in the second half before eventually winning by the final score of 83-71...Russell and Perry were named to the all-tournament team.

Did You Know? Bill Russell scored so many points on put-back offensive rebounds that rival coaches came up with the "Russell-Rule." The NCAA widened the free-throw lane to 12 feet so that Russell would have to stay farther out of basket-hanging range. Despite the new rule, he was still able to time his moves and made those startling, high-leaping tap-ins with ease.

1954-55 San Francisco Dons (28-1, 12-0 CBA)

Head Coach: Phil Woolpert
All-WCC Team: K.C. Jones, Bill Russell (POY)
Top Scorer: Bill Russell (21.4) | Top Rebounder: Bill Russell (20.5)
Behind future Hall of Famers Bill Russell and K.C. Jones, USF won its last 26 games of the 1954-55 season on its way to capturing the school's first NCAA basketball championship...the Dons ascended the top spot in the nation after impressive victories over UCLA, Wichita State, Oklahoma City and George Washington...breezed to the California Basketball Association title with a 12-0 record...downed West Texas State (89-66), Utah (79-59) and Oregon State (57-56) to earn a spot in the Final Four...defeated Colorado (62-50) and LaSalle (77-63) to claim its first of back-to-back national titles under head coach Phil Woolpert...in the championship game against LaSalle, 6-1 K.C. Jones held 6-7 Tom Gola, a three-time All-American, to just 16 points, including seven after intermission... Jones led the Dons with 24 points, Russell added 23 and Jerry Mullen chipped in 10...Russell was named the tournament's most valuable player while Jones landed a spot on the all-tournament team...the city of San Francisco embraced the Dons upon their return from Kansas City with a parade down Market Street.

They Said It: "Jones played the greatest basketball game seen by anyone at any time," Dons coach Phil Woolpert, who at forty years of age had just become the youngest coach to win the NCAA title. "Jones did things they have never seen in the middlewest. His blocks, his leaps to wrestle the ball away from Gola--you'd say they were impossible, but K.C. did them with the greatest game of his life."
