Ed Mofrad is the president and founder of Mofrad Financial Solutions. The firm—a California-based professional corporation—is engaged in the practice of accountancy, specializing in taxation (advisory, planning, resolution, preparation, and filing), business valuation (mainly in the IT and healthcare industries), and wealth management.

Prior to establishing the firm in 1996, Mr. Mofrad was employed by the federal government as an Internal Revenue Agent (IRS); and before that, as an Auditor (Defense Contract Audit Agency). His private industry experience includes working as a Senior Consultant with Ernst & Young (Bangkok), and as a Security Analyst with Sun Hung Kai (Bangkok Office).

From a family of pedagogues and born with a natural love of teaching, Mr. Mofrad's teaching resume includes instructing at Bangkok University, and as an adjunct in his Alma Mater: California State Polytechnic University, Pomona, where he earned his BS in Accountancy, and his MBA with a concentration in Finance.
