

December 7th, 2025

An Unexpected King
Luke 2:1-7

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

Luke 2:1-7 (NIV)

OVERVIEW

- The grandeur of Caesar (vv. 1-3)
- The unexpected grandeur of the Savior's birth (vv. 4-7)

What We Can Learn from the "Unexpected King."

1. Jesus' birth redefines _____.

Matt 18:2-4; 20:26

2. Jesus' birth reveals grace in _____

_____. John 8:1-11

3. Jesus' birth _____.

John 10:45

TALK IT OVER

Because we believe that the sharing of our ideas and beliefs enhances our spiritual growth in ways teaching alone cannot - we encourage you to join a small group at Sunridge and discuss some of the following questions.

What stood out most from this message, and why?

Luke presents Jesus' birth in humility, contrasted with Caesar's grandeur. Why do you think God chose to reveal His kingdom this way? How does this challenge our culture's definitions of greatness today?

The message talked about how grace can show up in unexpected ways in our lives. Where in your life have you seen God at work in ways that were surprising, subtle, or easy to overlook?

The way Jesus entered the world was so countercultural. In what ways have you found it necessary to live counterculturally in response to his call, "Follow me?"

December 7th, 2025

An Unexpected King
Luke 2:1-7

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register. So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

Luke 2:1-7 (NIV)

OVERVIEW

- The grandeur of Caesar (vv. 1-3)
- The unexpected grandeur of the Savior's birth (vv. 4-7)

What We Can Learn from the "Unexpected King."

1. Jesus' birth redefines greatness.

Matt 18:2-4; 20:26

2. Jesus' birth reveals grace in unexpected places. John 8:1-11

3. Jesus' birth redirects our goals. John 10:45

TALK IT OVER

Because we believe that the sharing of our ideas and beliefs enhances our spiritual growth in ways teaching alone cannot - we encourage you to join a small group at Sunridge and discuss some of the following questions.

What stood out most from this message, and why?

Luke presents Jesus' birth in humility, contrasted with Caesar's grandeur. Why do you think God chose to reveal His kingdom this way? How does this challenge our culture's definitions of greatness today?

The message talked about how grace can show up in unexpected ways in our lives. Where in your life have you seen God at work in ways that were surprising, subtle, or easy to overlook?

The way Jesus entered the world was so countercultural. In what ways have you found it necessary to live counterculturally in response to his call, "Follow me?"

