Re: Notice No. 01-5370658-[REDACTED]

To Whom It May Concern,

I am responding to your notice requesting the filing of a California tax return.

First, please update your records to reflect my current mailing address listed above. I request that all future correspondence be sent to this address to ensure timely receipt and response.

I have continuously resided in Las Vegas, Nevada since 1997 and have not been a California resident since 1996. My Nevada driver's license and residency records are consistent with this information.

With respect to the information referenced in your notice concerning CEN [REDACTED] FSB and Ne [REDACTED] Mortgage Servicing, I do not believe the information relied upon by your office is accurate as it relates to me personally.

I did not own California real property during tax year 2022, nor did I have a personal ownership interest in California property that would create a California filing obligation on the basis asserted in your notice.

To the extent your office is relying upon mortgage-related reporting information, please provide the complete source, nature, and supporting documentation for the information being relied upon, including but not limited to any third-party reporting records, account identifiers, ownership records, payment records, or other documentation that your office contends establishes a California filing obligation on my part. I request that all records, documents, and information relied upon in issuing this notice be provided so that I may properly review and respond to the basis of your claim.

Based upon the foregoing, I respectfully request that this matter be reviewed and that the notice be withdrawn/ cancelled, as I do not have a California filing requirement for the tax year referenced in your correspondence.

If your office disagrees, please provide the complete factual and legal basis supporting the asserted filing requirement, together with all supporting documentation, records, and evidence relied upon by your office in making that determination.

Sincerely,

Anthony [REDACTED]
