

COMPANY PROFILE

Alpax

alpaxinc.netABOUT

Alpax Inc. specializes in providing finished and semi-finished copper, brass, and bronze materials. We offer high-quality forms of copper alloys sourced from internationally accredited mills. With 110,000 square feet of stocking space, we have a wide range of common and hard-to-find alloys from our mill partners. In addition to our own mills in China, we have access to worldwide capable mill sources. Our expertise lies in mastering various forms and grades of copper alloys with metallurgical excellence and quality.
