ABOUT

C & R Metal Recycling is a full service recycling center for ferrous and nonferrous scrap metal, servicing the Alaskan interior for the past 20 years. We are the largest metal recycling center in Alaska. Our services include processing ferrous and nonferrous scrap metal for industrial, commercial, and individual customers. We have a fleet of trucks with containers, roll offs, and flatbed service to facilitate the collection and transportation of metal. By choosing C & R Metal Recycling, you can feel satisfied knowing that you are contributing to the sustainable reuse of metal resources.
