ABOUT

Calinx Recycling was founded in January 2006 and has been committed to conservation, landfill diversion, and toxics recovery ever since. We love what we do and are proud to have diverted millions of pounds of e-waste from the landfill. We strive to provide a service that makes it easy for companies, institutions, and the consumer to recycle their old electronics. We make sure the waste does not end up going overseas. Our policy is to keep all operations and processes transparent and in compliance with rigorous state and federal regulations. We guarantee and can provide certificates that 100% of personal and proprietary information is destroyed from all devices.
