ABOUT

There's something unexpected about Gallatin. An energetic small city set in the idyllic countryside only 30 miles north of Nashville, Gallatin offers the rich variety of recreational, educational, and economic activities you'd expect to find in a bigger city. Recognized as one of the top "power suburbs" in the United States, Gallatin boasts high-paying jobs and low taxes. Economic health, a thriving arts scene, and a vibrant retail environment make Gallatin a hub for family life. We're proud to share our hometown and hope you'll discover what makes Gallatin a great place to live and work.
