

COMPANY PROFILE

Direct Recycling Systems

directrecyclingsystems.comABOUT

Direct Recycling Systems is a company that specializes in cremation recycling services. They offer convenient pick-up options to collect and dispose of metal material waste in adherence to EPA regulations. The company recycles all metal materials by processing, melting, and repurposing them. They provide a detailed Assay Report after the recycling process is completed, and all proceeds are distributed according to the customer's instructions. Direct Recycling Systems utilizes state-of-the-art Clean Sweep technology, including their proprietary Air Broom and ancillary equipment. Their services are both beneficial for businesses and the environment.
