Green Century Electronics Recycling is the responsible, certified, and trusted answer when it comes to electronic recycling in Portland, Oregon. Unlike other recyclers who destroy all items, we believe computer recycling should be about keeping an item alive as long as possible by ensuring that functioning items are refurbished or donated, creating the lowest impact to the environment. At Green Century Electronics Recycling, we're committed to your business' security. Instead of risking any sensitive data stored on your devices, our team will safely and expertly destroy hard drives on site with DOD standards. We don't accept Styrofoam or PCB ballasts.
