We're here to help with rubbish removal, scrap metal pickup, and other property cleaning services large or small. We're also properly insured for your protection. For junk removal in the Schenectady area, ditch the dumpster. The better choice for home or commercial clean out services is JDog Junk Removal Capital Region. Locally owned and veteran-operated since 2011, we're your go-to source for property cleaning services from appliance removal to electronics disposal to foreclosure clean out assistance and more. We pride ourselves on military precision for your residential or commercial garbage removal, working quickly and effectively to take great care of your space. Plus, we provide fair and transparent junk pickup prices. Estimates are free on all of our clean out services, and they include all costs for both labor and removal. Come experience the smarter way to combat your clutter. Call us today for rubbish removal service at some of the best rates around! At JDog Junk Removal Capital Region, we're equipped to handle a wide variety of junk hauling needs. Whether you're interested in disposal of computers, removing a hot tub, or yard debris removal after a storm, we're happy to assist. Our junk removal services can be as large or as small as you want them to be, ranging from full clean out services for homes or businesses to individual services for miscellaneous debris removal. Regardless of how much stuff you have on your junk clean out list, we have the trucks, trailers, and training to get the job done. Based in Schenectady, we're pleased to serve the greater Capital District with our punctual and affordable junk removal offerings. No matter how busy you are, we'll work around your schedule to help with appliance removal, furniture removal, scrap metal recycling, and much more. Our junk pickup team is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to help customers in Schenectady, Albany, Troy, Clifton Park, Saratoga Springs, Colonie, Niskayuna, Guilderland, Voorheesville, Altamont, and other nearby communities. So why bother with a cumbersome dumpster? We can be in and out in a flash to put your whole junk pickup project behind you. With JDog Junk Removal Capital Region on your side, you won't be looking at extra fees for services such as electronic disposal or refrigerator removal. We give you a free estimate right up front for your entire junk hauling service, covering all of your labor and removal costs. It sure beats paying for a dumpster that's either too big or too small for the items you need removed. Thanks to our efficient and economical rubbish removal company, you pay only for the actual size of your residential or commercial junk pickup. What's more, we work with the local chapter of Habitat for Humanity, so a lot of the stuff we collect gets repurposed and stays out of area landfills. Who you use for junk removal matters more than you might realize. In the hands of JDog Junk Removal Capital Region, both your property and your discarded items will be treated right. We're a fully insured junk hauling company with five years of experience in the trade. We're also a member of the Chamber of Commerce in numerous localities, a member of the Small Business Strategic Alliance, and a member of the National Marine Corps Business Network and Unified Military Affairs Council. You can count on us to serve you and your property with the highest measure of pride. Do you need junk hauling to get rid of old items before a move? Are you looking for a demolition company to take down a rickety structure? Do you need disposal services for old appliances, furniture, or electronics? For these and many other types of rubbish removal projects, your best bet in the Schenectady area is JDog Junk Removal Capital Region. Operated by local veterans, our junk removal business is serious about delivering top-notch workmanship, courteous customer service, and quick turnaround times. Let us implement your garbage removal mission with military-style precision and honest pricing on every job. It's a win-win way to clean out your clutter while simultaneously supporting area veterans. Call us today to get started! No junk pickup job is too much or too little for the team at JDog Junk Removal Capital Region. We're flexible and capable enough to deal with almost anything from full-scale clean out services for homes or businesses to single-item pickups for spa removal, old TV removal, refrigerator removal, and more. In fact, we're here around the clock to provide you with a wide array of property cleaning services. Getting rid of unwanted items is simple when you have our disciplined veterans working for you. Instead of trying to round up friends and family members to help with junk hauling, we can be there whenever you need us to clean out unwanted items and dispose of them properly. Plus, we keep you safe from unexpected incidents and injuries, since we're well trained to handle not only the heavy items but also the risky jobs such as tree debris removal and exterior demolition service. We're a fully insured junk hauling company, and we have high standards for safety and quality. As for affordability, you're not likely to find another junk removal service that cares as much as we do about fair and clear-cut pricing. Whether you hire us to tackle a basement cleanout, dispose of old computers, or carry out unwanted furniture removal, you can sit back and relax, knowing the price you get on your free estimate will be the price you pay. Unlike some dumpster companies and other Schenectady-area junk pickup services, we don't believe in tacking on extra fees based on weight overages or types of materials. From latex paint to shingles to tires and so much more, we include it all in our junk removal services with full transparency regarding labor and removal costs. Why not call us today to get an estimate at no charge? Superior Junk Pickup Since 2011 At JDog Junk Removal Capital Region, we're pleased to work with property owners, contractors, real estate professionals, and anyone else in the Schenectady metro who is looking for fast and affordable junk removal from qualified professionals. We've been in business since 2011, and we run a tight ship when it comes to junk hauling services for homes and businesses alike. Pick up the phone now and call our local veteran team to experience the very best in property cleaning services. We look forward to speaking with you. It can be a hassle to get rid of old bulky items like broken refrigerators or dead water heaters. Rather than leaving them to rust or lugging them to the curb, let JDog Junk Removal Capital Region help with your scrap metal pick up and disposal needs. From spent appliances to outdated electronics, we can see to it that your scrap metal collection is handled in an efficient and eco-friendly manner. We try to repurpose as much as possible, and we don't charge you extra fees for recycling TVs and other electronics. Ready to hear more about our scrap metal recycling in the Schenectady area? Give us a ring today! Since scrap metal can be salvaged and reused for other manufacturing applications, it's important to dispose of scrap metal responsibly. That's where the metal recyclers at JDog Junk Removal Capital Region come in. We do our best when recycling scrap metal to make sure no useful materials go to waste. Our scrap metal pick up team can haul away items of virtually all shapes and sizes. Most of the time, when you purchase a new appliance, it's fairly easy to get it set up in your space. But how are you supposed to get rid of the old model? Instead of throwing out your back trying to haul it away on your own, get in touch with JDog Junk Removal Capital Region. We're pleased to offer appliance removal to home- and business owners throughout Schenectady and the local area. Our job is to get rid of that unwanted unit, so you don't have to worry about it. From doing the actual heavy lifting to carting your old fridge, dishwasher, or dryer to a local donation center, recycling center, or dump, our junk appliance removal team will take the burden from your shoulders. Ready to book appliance removal service? Call or e-mail JDog Junk Removal Capital Region now! Is your old appliance still in reasonably good condition? JDog Junk Removal Capital Region is proud to work in association with Habitat for Humanity to reuse items whenever possible. Do you need removal of appliances that are completely out of service? We'll know how to properly dispose of appliances, following all of Schenectady's codes and restrictions. You'll get to start enjoying your new appliance sooner, without the hassle of researching how to handle appliance removal and recycling on your own. What's not to love? Your fridge is probably one of your biggest, bulkiest appliances. Getting rid of it? JDog Junk Removal Capital Region will be able to carry out refrigerator removal with skill and care. We won't damage your kitchen floor, walls, or surrounding furnishings as we maneuver your heavy refrigerator out to our truck. We're the appliance removal service to trust for even the most back-breaking jobs. JDog Junk Removal Capital Region is fully insured, with five years of experience in appliance removal. A veteran-operated business, we pride ourselves on the high caliber of our customer service. We'll show up promptly and work efficiently, especially if you need old appliance removal as soon as possible. Plus, we offer free estimates for our services—and we'll stick to that quote. So whether you need a team to clear out a whole houseful of broken or outdated appliances or you need pickup of a single item, don't hesitate to contact JDog Junk Removal Capital Region. We'll be there when you need us! Are you the excited owner of a new television, computer, or stereo system? It might not be as easy to dispose of your old electronics as you thought. The Schenectady region has rules and regulations in place related to electronics disposal, and if you don't follow them to the letter, you could face consequences. Luckily, JDog Junk Removal Capital Region is standing by to provide expert disposal services. We'll swing by your residential or commercial property and pick up whatever old electronics you're ready to get rid of, and then get those items to the appropriate recycling, donation, or disposal facility. Our job is to take the hassle out of electronic disposal. Ready to book our electronic recycling services? Call or e-mail us today! Whether you're doing an attic or basement cleanout and have discovered a treasure trove of outdated components or you need old TV removal after buying a new model, JDog Junk Removal Capital Region has you covered. With our disposal services, you won't even have to do the heavy lifting. Just point us toward the items you no longer want or need and watch us carry them away. You'll be able to breathe easy knowing that your electronic disposal is being carried out the right way. JDog Junk Removal Capital Region is a veteran-operated local business. We prioritize respect, integrity, and trust. On top of being fully insured for old TV removal, disposal of computers, and many other services, we have five years of experience serving the Schenectady region. We take pride in offering timely turnarounds and are available 24 hours a day if you need electronic recycling services outside of normal business hours. Our customer service is unparalleled. If you've been wondering how to dispose of electronics, you can stop worrying once you've contacted JDog Junk Removal Capital Region. We're pleased to offer free estimates for disposal of electronics, and we'll stick to the price we've quoted you. Our reasonable rates are just one more thing that sets JDog Junk Removal Capital Region apart from our competitors. Get in touch now to schedule your appointment!
