ABOUT

Logan's Appliance Center is a home appliance store located in Camden, SC. They offer a wide range of products including kitchen appliances and laundry appliances. In addition to selling appliances, they also provide service and repair for broken appliances. Logan's Appliance Center has been serving the Kershaw and Lee County communities since 1972 and remains committed to providing quality appliances and unmatched service. They have a knowledgeable sales staff and a live kitchen display for customers to test their most popular kitchen appliances. Their factory authorized service department can efficiently diagnose and repair broken appliances. Logan's Appliance Center aims to provide a unique shopping experience and personalized customer service that sets them apart from big box retailers.
