ABOUT

Midwest Computer Recyclers provides comprehensive computer and electronic recycling services in Stevens Point, WI. They offer recycling solutions for a wide range of electronics including computer, office, industrial, and consumer electronics. With a focus on proper disposal methods and compliance with regulations, they provide drop-off locations for residents, pickup services for businesses, and partner with non-profit groups and municipalities for fundraising events and community drop-off locations. Through partnerships and a commitment to reuse, they aim to find outlets for equipment reuse and donate to charitable organizations, maintenance companies, and system rebuilders. Unusable items are dismantled and recycled for scrap metals and plastics, with a focus on local recycling outlets.
