

COMPANY PROFILE

Northwest Recycling,

nwrecycling.comABOUT

Northwest Recycling is a full-service recycling center that specializes in scrap metal recycling and storage container rentals. The company has a long history, starting as Parberry Iron & Metal in 1923 and evolving to include new steel sales and a retail hardware store. Today, Northwest Recycling is managed by Brad Parberry and Marty Kuljis, offering recycling services for Bellingham and Whatcom County. They are committed to providing sustainable solutions and contributing to the community.
