ABOUT

At the same location for many decades, the site of The New Tin Yard has long played a role in the Modesto/Stanislaus County area's scrap recycling industry. In August of 2011, the site began a complete remodeling and site updating process. The New Tin Yard continues to specialize in serving customers in a fast and friendly way. We are conveniently located off Hwy 99 in Modesto, CA. (Kansas Ave. exit and use the driveway next to United Circuit Breakers).
