Background

Glenn brings more than 30 years of diverse investment experience, commencing his career in stockbroking in Melbourne. Early in his career, he worked as a Mining Investment Analyst at J. B. Were & Son, leveraging his degree in Mining Engineering and hands-on experience in the Australian coal industry.

Since 1996, Glenn has specialised in retail advisory, holding roles at KJ Polkinghorne, E.L. & C. Baillieu, and subsequently Ord Minnett. His primary interest lies in macroeconomics, diligently analysing major global and national economic trends and their impact on key asset markets.

Glenn's mining background gives him deep insight into commodity markets and resource stocks, enhancing his ability to evaluate investment opportunities in the sector.
