Background

Michael has been a valued member of Ord Minnett for over 34 years and continues to serve clients in his role as an Investment Adviser.

Known for his conservative approach, Michael brings a wealth of experience in direct equities investment and cash products, including term deposits. Over his extensive career, he has guided numerous clients through various market cycles, focusing on strategies that prioritise capital preservation and steady, long-term growth. Michael's deep understanding of fundamental investment principles, coupled with his considerable tenure in the Australian financial landscape, allows him to offer insightful and dependable advice.

Michael is committed to building lasting relationships with his clients, grounded in trust and a clear understanding of their individual financial objectives and risk comfort levels. His long-standing presence at Ord Minnett underscores his commitment to providing consistent and reliable guidance.
