Background

Chris brings more than 20 years of investment experience to his role, providing trusted advice to his clients. His career in the share broking industry spans both administrative and advisory roles, offering a broad perspective on financial markets. Notably, Chris operated on the trading floor of the Australian Stock Exchange during the 1987 financial crisis, gaining invaluable firsthand experience.

He actively manages client portfolios, helping them achieve their financial goals and objectives. With a strong foundation in financial principles, Chris is committed to providing tailored investment strategies. His approach focuses on sound asset allocation, ensuring clients' financial goals are addressed with precision and clarity. He delivers comprehensive financial advice, guiding clients through the complexities of the market.

His dedication to developing investment strategies that align with individual needs supports long-term financial security. By staying attuned to market trends and applying established financial principles, Chris aims to provide informed and effective guidance to his clients.
