Background

Damien is a wholesale Investment Adviser with more than thirty years of experience providing advice exclusively to wholesale investors.

His extensive career spans several prominent financial services firms, including Merrill Lynch, and Bell Potter, reflecting a deep and broad understanding of the financial landscape. Damien focuses on delivering advice tailored to the specific needs of wholesale investors, with a particular emphasis on portfolio management of Australian shares and income option strategies, predominantly for superannuation and pension funds.

He leverages his in-depth market knowledge to construct well-informed strategies aimed at achieving clients' financial objectives, fostering long-term, trust-based relationships built on clear communication and a commitment to client success.
