Background

Having commenced working at Ord Minnett in 1997, after working in London for four years, George has spent the last 18 years advising clients.

George initially started working from the Ord Minnett Sydney office and more recently has begun working out of our Hong Kong office. George is a Responsible Officer of the Hong Kong Office. He is a trusted resource for wealth creation and protection strategies, serving both Australian and Hong Kong-based clients.

George provides tailored investment advice, drawing on his expertise in domestic and international equities, fixed-income, and capital raisings, seamlessly incorporating insights from Ords' in-house Research team.
