Background

Mitchell has been a valued member of Ord Minnett for more than five years and has steadily progressed into a highly capable Private Wealth Adviser, reflecting his commitment to achieving strong outcomes for clients. He has served as an adviser within a collaborative team for more than three years, building upon more than two years of experience supporting senior private wealth advisers as an assistant.

Mitchell also brings valuable client service experience from boutique financial planning firms. He excels at establishing strong rapport with a diverse clientele, including high and ultra-high net worth families, providing trusted advice tailored to their unique financial goals and objectives, which encompass wealth accumulation, wealth preservation, and the creation of consistent income streams.

Mitchell is known for his proactive approach in identifying opportunities to add significant value and delivering tailored solutions across direct investments, superannuation strategies, and the intricacies of intergenerational wealth transfer.
