

Downtown Accessibility Navigator

Margaux (last updated July 2024)

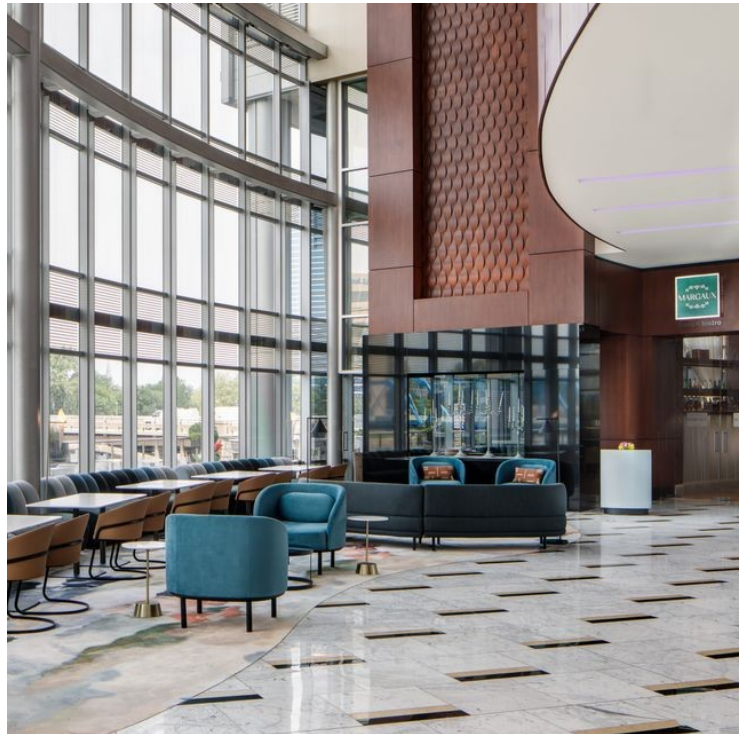

235 Louis Street NW, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49503

Margaux is part of the larger JW Marriott Grand Rapids Downtown building.

The JW Marriot Parking Garage is a gated parking ramp across Louis Street NW, south of the venue. There is a driveway entrance and exit along Louis Street NW. There are designated accessible parking spaces with adjacent access aisles present.

Entrances.

Margaux is in the JW Marriot Grand Rapids Lobby. The Main Entrance is along Louis Street NW. There is a loading zone present in front of the Main Lobby Entrance of the JW Marriott Grand Rapids Hotel. There is a lowered sidewalk present.

The Main Lobby Entrance has a powered revolving turnstile door, with an adjacent manual swinging door.

The Margaux Boardwalk Entrance is along the Grand Rapids Riveredge Trail, a boardwalk along the Grand River. There is a proximity-activated sensor that opens the sliding door on the exterior side, and a push button that opens the sliding door on the interior side. There is a dining patio present that overlooks the Grand River. There are open railings that provide a clear view of the river. There is table with chair, and picnic table seating available.

There is an emergency exit gate that opens to the loading zone in front of the JW Marriott Grand Rapids Hotel.

Inside.

Downtown Accessibility Navigator

The dining room is a long dining area with high ceilings and tall windows. There is table with chair, high table with stool, booth, and bar with stool seating available. There is a raised bar counter, and a separate lowered bar counter available near the kitchens.

There is a private event dining room available with a long table with chairs. There are wide clear routes around the table.

There are two unisex family-style restrooms present.

The dining room is brightly lit. The venue is a restaurant and noise levels may be elevated during busy hours.