Rockwell Republic / Rockwell's Kitchen & Tap (Closed)

45 Division Avenue S, Grand Rapids, Michigan 40503

Outside:

The Weston – Commerce Park Ramp is behind the facility.

There is an intersection NE of the venue. Weston street crosses Division Avenue: creating an offset intersection, where Weston on the west side of Division does not line up with Weston on the east side of Division. There are painted crosswalks, and curb ramps with detectible warning plates. There are perpendicular style curb ramps at each corner. There are no audible cues for crossing the street at this intersection. The detectible warning plate on the NW side of Weston Street follows the curve of the curb, and some of the plate does not face the curb ramps on the opposite side of the street.

Inside.

There are two sides of the building, and two entrances. The north entrance is to the Rockwell Republic, and the south Main entrance is to the Rockwell's Kitchen & Tap. There are no power doors present.

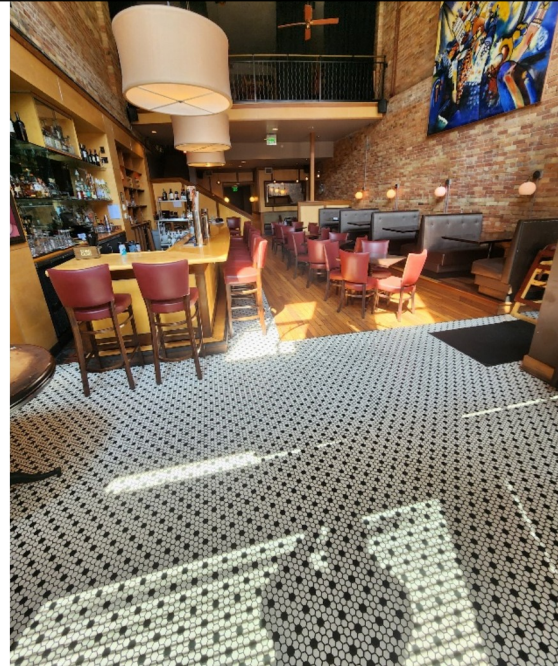

The dining rooms on both sides have two floors, accessed by stairs only. There are no elevators available. Access between the two sides is through the kitchen, and on the second floor up a step. The aisles between the tables on the first floor of the dining rooms may be narrow while the stools or chairs are occupied.

There is bar with stool, table with bench, high table with stool, and table with chair seating available in Rockwell's Kitchen & Tap side.
