

Downtown Accessibility Navigator

Sundance Grill & Bar (last updated July 2024)

151 Ottawa Avenue NW, Grand Rapids, Michigan 40503

The Sundance Grill & Bar is a restaurant in the center of the Downtown Grand Rapids area.

The Pearl Ionia Ramp is a gated parking ramp at 28 Pearl Street NW. There is a driveway entrance and exit along Pearl Street NW, and a driveway entrance and exit along Ionia Avenue NW. There are designated accessible parking spaces with adjacent access aisles available.

Entrances.

The Sundance Grill & Bar main entrance is at the Pearl Street NW and Ottawa Avenue NW intersection. The main entrance is split, with a door along Pearl Street NW, and a second door along Ottawa Avenue NW. The main entrance vestibule leads directly to the Host Station and Dining Room.

The Pearl Street door has a short ramp up from the sidewalk. There is no power door present.

The Ottawa Avenue door is flush with the sidewalk. There is no power door present.

There is an interior entrance in the first-floor lobby of the Waters Center Building at 161 Ottawa Avenue NW. The Waters Center Building main entrance has push-button activated powered swinging double doors. The vestibule leads directly to the Waters Center Building Lobby. The Sundance Grill & Bar interior entrance door is tempered glass and may be difficult to open. There is no power door present.

Inside.

Downtown Accessibility Navigator

The restaurant has a Bar Room, a Dining Room and an Event Dining Room.

The Bar Room is a large dining area with high ceilings and tall windows overlooking Pearl Street NW and Ottawa Avenue NW. There are high tables with stool seating, and bar with stool seating available. There is no lowered section of bar counter available. The Bar Room is well-lit. The aisles between the tables are wide.

The Dining Room is beyond the Bar Room, and is a large space with tall windows overlooking Ottawa Avenue NW. There is table with chair, and booth seating available. The Dining Room is well-lit. The aisles between the tables are wide.

The Event Dining Room is accessed by a ramp near the Bar Counter, and is a large space with tall windows overlooking Pearl Street NW. There is table with chair seating available. The Event Dining Room is quiet and well-lit.

The Bar Room and Dining Room may have elevated noise levels during busy hours.