

PDCA SPOTLIGHT: PAINTER'S PORTRAIT

Brooke Cambridge, BLC Painting

PDCA National is happy to roll out the Painter's Portrait, a new e-colors series spotlighting a PDCA member. First up...

Brooke Cambridge, owner of BLC Painting in Salem, MA.

How long have you been a member of PDCA? 4 years

What inspired you to choose this profession? I fell into it with friends from high school. I wanted to be an architect and I've always been drawn to art, design and hands on activities. And, I'm a people pleaser!

What PDCA benefit do you use most? The meetings and educational training, and feedback/networking with other members.

Outside of work, what do you like to do? Ice hockey, drumming, chilling with my two fave gals, my labs Toby & Roxy, any outside sports

Interesting/fun fact about yourself? I tried out for the Olympics for women's ice hockey

If you had one extra hour of free time a day, how would you use it? Exercise!

If you could be any color in a Crayola box, what color would you be and why? Blue...it's my favorite color.

What color is your kitchen? C2 Palomino

Catch Brooke and her team on A&E's Flipping Boston on Feb. 23, March 2 & 9. Click here for more information.
