

October 20th 2014
NGO Programme – Greece

Open Call for Scorers UNDER THE ‘WE ARE ALL CITIZENS’ PROGRAMME

The Bodossaki Foundation, under the “We are all Citizens” Programme, funded by the EEA (European Economic Area) and aiming to strengthen civil society in Greece, is looking for sixteen (16) independent experts – scorers for the evaluation of proposals submitted by Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), following open calls for proposals, as potential project promoters of the Programme and will fall under the following expected outcomes of the Programme:

1. Democratic values, including human rights, promoted. The areas of support that correspond to this call are:
 - Democracy;
 - Human rights including minorities rights (in particular Roma, immigrants, migrants and asylum seekers);
 - Good governance and transparency;
 - Participatory democracy;
 - Combat racism, xenophobia and hate crime;
 - Anti-discrimination on all grounds, including sexual orientation;
 - Social inequalities, poverty and exclusion, including in rural areas;
 - Gender equality;
 - Gender-based violence;
 - Anti-corruption;
 - Trafficking in human beings;
 - Capacity building;
 - Active citizenship and human rights awareness-raising;
 - Networking and coalition building among NGOs;
 - Protection of the environment and climate change.

2. Strengthened capacity of NGOs and an enabling environment for the sector promoted. The areas of support that correspond to this call are:
 - Capacity building

 - Good governance and transparency

 - Networking and coalition building among NGOs

Subject of the Evaluation - Scoring:

The scorers are responsible for the evaluation and special scoring of the proposals submitted as described above and their corresponding budgets, according to the corresponding pre-defined specific selection criteria, set by the Bodossaki Foundation.

Required Qualifications:

Candidates will have to meet the following requirements:

1. Hold a Graduate Degree from a Greek or foreign University (Post-graduate degree will be strongly considered).
2. At least five years of experience in evaluating similar projects and knowledge on at least one of the expected outcomes, including the corresponding areas of support, of the Programme.
3. Working efficiency of Greek and English language
4. Knowledge of the Greek civil society will be strongly considered.

Conflict of Interest:

Candidates will have to be objective and independent. They must not have a relation, under payment or not, with NGO applicants, either currently or during the last five (5) years. They must not be Board members or legal representatives of NGO applicants, either currently or during the last five (5) years, and must not be related by blood or marriage up to the third degree to Board members or legal representatives of such NGOs.

Successful applicants will need to sign a confidentiality and non-conflict of interest declaration.

Application Submissions:

Applicants must submit to the Bodossaki Foundation an application letter and their CV together with proof of academic and work experience electronically at info@bodossaki.gr, OR via mail with the subject "Independent Scorers" to the following address: Bodossaki Foundation, 5 Vas. Georgiou B', 10674, Athens, Greece

Delivery can take the form of registered or express mail, by courier or hand delivery (during office hours: 8.00am to 16.00pm).

The deadline for submission of Applications is 18:00pm, November 24th, 2014.

Other information:

The scorers will be selected by the Bodossaki Foundation according to its free judgment.

The services of the scorers are paid, part-time, and will be provided from December 15th 2014 to February 16th 2015. The number of proposals that will be assigned for evaluation to each scorer will be dependent on the total number of applications that will be submitted.

The scorers will receive a fee of 35 euro plus VAT for each application they score.

Obvious responsibilities of the scorers are respecting the rules of operation and confidentiality of the Bodossaki Foundation. The scorers do not acquire the right to an employment agreement after the end of the specified service provision, nor other employment rights. The Bodossaki Foundation reserves the right to cancel or suspend its cooperation with the scorers at any time, in the event of violation of his or her responsibilities, as well as in cases of false or inaccurate statements and concealment of relevant information.