

The American Academy of Health and Fitness

awards

William Corey

a certification of advanced qualification

SrFit Mature Fitness Training Specialty Certification

This training, in addition to a nationally recognized personal trainer certification, ensures the certificate holder has the knowledge needed to safely and effectively train the Baby Boomer and beyond client.

Qualifies for 22 contact hours of CEU credit for: PTA Global (no provider # needed), WITS (no provider # needed).

Qualifies for 20 contact hours of CEU credit for: ACE (provider # CA198318), BCRPA (no provider # needed), HFPA (no provider # needed) ISSA (provider # 10-5534), NAFC (provider # CE201508AA), NASN (no provider # needed), NESTA (provider # 366), NETA (no provider # needed), NFPT (no provider # needed), and SFA (no provider # needed). (ACSM and YMCA accept ACE credit hours.)

Qualifies for 19 contact hours of CEU credit for: NASM (provider # 431).

Qualifies for 15 contact hours of CEU credit for: AFAA (provider # 10514).

Qualifies for 14 CECs for: CPTN (provider # HS 200906).

Qualifies for 14 contact hours of CEU credit for: NCCPT (no provider # needed).

Qualifies for 10 CEUs for: NCSF (provider # 30201154).

Given on: January 15, 2017

Tammy Petersen/Founder
The American Academy of Health and Fitness

The certified professional must retain this certificate for a period of 4 years.