Aliza Kuperstock, LJIST Office Manager, brings a wealth of experience and skills to LJIST office, team and clients.

Aliza has a B.A. in Philosophy from Clark University in Worcester, MA with a concentration in Ethics and Public Policy. Prior to joining the LJIST team, Aliza spent almost a decade creating, coordinating and managing economic equity programs at local non-profit organizations in Portland, OR.

Aliza brings a passion for equity, eye for systematic development, small business support and thirst for learning and education to LJIST.

Aliza was born in Chicago, IL and was raised mainly in and around New Haven, CT in a middle-class Jewish family. She is of Polish-Russian heritage.

When she's not at LJIST, you'll find Aliza preserving foods, always working on a jigsaw puzzle, playing with her niece and nephews, or hiking the many beautiful paths in and around Portland, OR.
