Father's' Day: The Making of Greatness

Mark Pope
June 16/17, 2018

1. How do you define “greatness”?
2. To a certain extent, we all want greatness in our lives. What are some areas of your life in which you want to be great?
3. Read Judges 6:15. Do you (or have you) ever struggled with negative self-talk like Gideon? What area(s) of your life do you lack a context for greatness?
4. Has leaning into God ever allowed you to change your definition of greatness? Give an example.
5. What do you believe is true about yourself? Do you believe God can use you greatly despite what failings you may believe you have? What are some practical ways you can shift your perception of yourself to more closely match God’s perception of you, thereby seeing yourself like He does, according to your destiny and not your history?
6. Pastor Mark mentioned in his teaching that a key to having greatness in our lives isn’t genetics or education, it’s being connected to God. How are you connecting to God so that He’s able to do those great things in your life?
7. God calls out our “unseen awesomeness” just like He did for Gideon. How did God do this for Gideon, and how can He do it for you? In the same way, God may prompt us to call out the unseen awesomeness in someone else. Who are some of the people in your life that God might want you to point out greatness in?
