

The Heart Behind the Law (Exodus 21-23)

Pastor Steve Huffman | August 29 & 30, 2026

1. If you listen to someone long enough, you can usually tell what they're interested in. When have you found out something interesting about someone by listening to them?
2. Look at Luke 6:45. What would the people around you say you talk about most? What do your words reveal about what matters most to you?
3. What are some practical ways we can slow down, listen to God, and discover what matters to Him?
4. In the Law, God focuses on justice over revenge. When someone wrongs you, how do you tend to respond? Do you find yourself wanting to get revenge? (Exodus 21-23)
5. Read Exodus 22:22-24. God focuses on compassion for the vulnerable. What's your first response to those in need? To the foreigner, widow, or fatherless?
6. Who is the "foreigner" in your world? How might God be calling you to respond to them?
