1. What opportunities in your past do you wish you would have pursued differently than you did? In which of those missed opportunities do you think Jesus may have been there?
2. Look at Acts 24:24. What does this verse teach you about missing an opportunity to be with God?
3. When we do not see opportunities in front of us, what is it that blinds us? What has blinded you in your past?
4. Read Mark 10:46-52. Why did the crowd try to quiet Bartimaeus when he cried out to Jesus? Why do you think Bartimaeus persisted?
5. If Jesus asked you, “what can I do for you?” How would you answer Him? How would your answer have been different before hearing this message?
6. What can you do “all the more” this week to step into an opportunity with God?
