

SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

Name:

Date:

Safety Topic: V1-177 HazMat – Compressed Gas Cylinders

1. The color of a compressed gas cylinder is always the best way to identify the gas it contains.
  - a. True
  - b. False
2. A sudden, uncontrolled release of the _____ contents can cause a compressed gas cylinder to propel or spin out of control causing injury and damage.
  - a. low-temperature
  - b. half-empty
  - c. high-pressure
  - d. over-filled
3. Compressed gas cylinders that are _____ should be secured with a chain, strap, rack, or other suitable device.
  - a. in use
  - b. empty
  - c. in storage
  - d. all of the above
4. Store compressed gas cylinders in an _____ position with the valve closed and the cylinder cap secured.
  - a. angled
  - b. uneven
  - c. inverted
  - d. upright
5. Empty compressed gas cylinders should be labeled as _____, stored separately away from full cylinders with the valve closed and the cylinder cap secured, and then returned with all the original accessories.
  - a. old
  - b. empty
  - c. open
  - d. active

SAFETY MEETING QUIZ

ANSWER KEY

Safety Topic: V1-177 HazMat – Compressed Gas Cylinders

1. The color of a compressed gas cylinder is always the best way to identify the gas it contains.
  - a. True
  - ☒ b. False
2. A sudden, uncontrolled release of the _____ contents can cause a compressed gas cylinder to propel or spin out of control causing injury and damage.
  - a. low-temperature
  - b. half-empty
  - ☒ c. high-pressure
  - d. over-filled
3. Compressed gas cylinders that are _____ should be secured with a chain, strap, rack, or other suitable device.
  - a. in use
  - b. empty
  - c. in storage
  - ☒ d. all of the above
4. Store compressed gas cylinders in an _____ position with the valve closed and the cylinder cap secured.
  - a. angled
  - b. uneven
  - c. inverted
  - ☒ d. upright
5. Empty compressed gas cylinders should be labeled as _____, stored separately away from full cylinders with the valve closed and the cylinder cap secured, and then returned with all the original accessories.
  - a. old
  - ☒ b. empty
  - c. open
  - d. active

