Raksha Bandhan 2020: Quotes 1st siblings who say they never fight, definitely hide something Horseradish 2nd siblings fight, pull each other's hair, steal things and accuse each other indiscriminately. But siblings also know the undeniable fact that they are the same blood, have the same origins and are family. Even if they hate each other. And that tends to put everything in perspective. Vera Nazarian, The Perpetual Calendar of Inspiration 3. What brothers say to tease their sisters has nothing to do with what they really think of them. Esther M. Friesner, Nobody's Princess 4. Sometimes I argued with my siblings, but I couldn't remember hating someone for more than five minutes. - Gloria Whelan, Summer of the War 5. This is the case with firstborns. Mum and Dad may think they're in charge, but the firstborn knows better, and that's also the youngest sibling. - Kevin Leman, The Firstborn Advantage: Making Your Birth Order Work for You 6. True siblings are connected by much more important things than blood, while more than many blood is no thicker than water. Constantina Maud, Hydranos 7. He is my brother, my blood. He annoys the hell out of me most of the time, but when it comes down to it, I want to see him finish college and let little annoying mini-Alexes and mini-Brittanys run around in the future – Simone Elkeles, Rules of Attraction 8. Siblings: children of the same parents, each of whom is completely normal until they come together. Sam Levenson 9. They say, no matter how old you get, when you're with your siblings, you go back to childhood. – Karen White 10. Power, that's one thing, but love for family and siblings is more important, is more powerful than any other power – at least earthly power, at least earthly power. – Sander Levin Raksha Bandhan 2020: Pictures (All photos: Shutterstock) Wish your brothers and sisters a happy Raksha Bandhan with our heartwarming wishes and messages.
